Chairman, Joint Committee.

CALCUTTA:
The 23rd July, 1965.

JOINT MINUTE OF DISSENT

A thorough amendment of the Bengal Co-operative Societies Act, 1940, has been long over due. It was desirable that the old Act, passed exactly 25 years ago, should have been repealed and an entirely new Bill drafted. It may be noted that almost all the States of Indian Union have already passed new Acts on co-operation. As only the clauses of the amending Bill were open for discussion before the Joint Committee, we could not take up other sections of the original Act, however much we may have desired.

2. During the long period of existence of this Act, especially after Independence, there has been, though not to the extent desired, an increase in the number of co-operative societies as well as in their varieties. Many of these co-operative societies are rendering valuable service and they deserve all possible encouragement from the State. It is also true that a good number of co-operative societies are not functioning properly and doing disservice to the movement as a whole. In order that co-operative societies may function properly, it is necessary to develop them as democratic institutions. Initiative, energy and vigilance of the ordinary members can only ensure the development and proper functioning of co-operative societies. Many of the ills of the co-operative societies and co-operative movement as a whole are due to lack of democratic functioning and those ills can be reduced, if not eliminated, if such functioning is ensured. It cannot however be denied that with more than 70 per cent. of the population as illiterate and at a low economic level, specially in rural areas, it is difficult to develop the co-operative societies as democratic institutions. But there is no other alternative and officialisation of the movement is no remedy. Spread of literacy and of education in co-operation are some of the essential preconditions for the success of the movement.

3. The amendments in the Bengal Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Bill were proposed from an exactly opposite angle. The object of the amendments was to tighten bureaucratic control over the co-operative movement and to make the Registrar the Grand Patriarch of the co-operatives. With such wide powers to the Registrar, there was every danger of the co-operatives being transformed into appendages of the Co-operative Department. The Bill has undergone some changes in the Joint Committee from the standpoint of reducing the proposed wide powers of the Registrar and such retrograde clauses of the amending Bill could be omitted and status quo ante could be restored.

4. We are opposed in principle to the system of nomination as contemplated in clause 9 which will very often turn co-operatives into hot beds of party politics and corruption. This would do incalculable harm to the movement. If municipalities, which handle and disburse large sums of public and State money, can function satisfactorily without any Government nominee, we wonder why the co-operatives, even after the "paternal solicitude" of the Registrar and his vast retinue of officers, would still need the presence of nominated members or additional directors to "lead kindly light".

5. We found ourselves baffled and handicapped because we could not take into consideration the accumulated mass of Rules which have been framed by the Government from time to time. It appeared that Rules had become parallel legislation and some of the Rules are not in consonance with the spirit of the Act and have exceeded the scope of particular provisions. The Rules (Rule No. 32) have provided for the appointment of Additional Directors by the State Government which was never contemplated by any section of the Act. It has often been found that the very same person or persons who have been thrown out in election at the annual general meeting and whose influence has been baneful to the development and functioning of the co-operative have been nominated as Additional Directors by the State Government and the democratic will of the members has been outraged.

6. Under clause 8, it has been recommended by the Joint Committee that the report of inspection or of enquiry and the annual statement of accounts would be placed before the annual general meeting. This would give an opportunity to the ordinary members to participate in a discussion on the inner working of the society. This would make ordinary members active, vigilant and co-operative minded. We, however, feel that the prevailing system of audit by the Co-operative Department is wrong in principle. The audit should be done by an authority like the Accountant-General, West Bengal, who can take a detached view of the working of the society.

The Bill, as it emerges from the Joint Committee, embodies certain [illegible] which are no doubt improvements on the original. They [illegible]

(2) There is a time limit to the disposal of applications from individuals for membership of a society. [Clause 23, proposed sec. 59A(8).]

(3) There is a time limit to the disposal of application for registration of a society by the Registrar. (Clause 5A.) It would have been better if the Andhra and Punjab Acts had been followed, which provide that "the Registrar shall communicate by registered post the order of refusal together with the reasons therefor."

(4) It has been made possible for co-operative sicieties to advance loans to any depositor on the security of his deposit. [Clause 15(2).]

(5) Blanket powers of the Registrar to direct amendment of the by-laws have been to some extent circumscribed. The special general meeting, to be called by the Registrar, will have an opportunity to discuss the merits or otherwise of the amendments proposed. (Clause 6.)

(6) The status and powers of the Tribunal have been made more defined and effective. [Clause 46, proposed sec. 133A(2).]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

On the extension of the provisions of the Howrah Improvement Act, 1956, to certain non-municipal areas it is necessary to provide that the owners of lands in such areas also shall, like the owners of lands in municipal areas, get notice of an improvement scheme affecting their lands and may make any representation in respect thereof.

As a result of the constitution of the Howrah Municipal Corporation under the Howrah Municipal Act, 1965, the area of operation of the Howrah Improvement Trust will necessarily cover a wider area. It is therefore proposed to widen also the financial and other powers of the Board of Trustees for the Improvement of Howrah and the Chairman of the Board, on the lines of the provisions of the Calcutta Improvement Act, 1911, so that their functions may be efficiently discharged.

The remuneration of the Chairman is also proposed to be enhanced so that a senior officer may be appointed to and retained in the post for the prescribed period.

The amendments proposed in the Bill are, apart from certain conversions to metric measures and decimal coinage, mainly for the purpose of giving effect to the above objects.

2. Traverse Survey: The cadastral survey of any district or part of a district in respect of which an order under sub-section (1) of section 51 for revision or preparation of record-of-rights has been made, shall be based upon a traverse survey, and such traverse survey shall ordinarily be carried out by theodolite observations.

3. Cadastral Survey: (1) In the course of proceedings under sub-section (1) of section 51 a large-scale map showing roads, rivers, railway and other physical features of the country, as well as homesteads and other fields, shall be prepared for each village as adopted in the general land revenue survey which has been made in the State of West Bengal or in any survey made by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette as defining villages in any specified area:

Provided that for any specified area, whether previously notified as a village or not, the State Government may direct that the preparation of a map as aforesaid be dispensed with or that such map be prepared either by adopting any map or plan previously prepared by the Government or by any local authority or by any private party after such modification, if any, as may be considered necessary with a view to representing the existing state of affairs, for the purpose of the revision or preparation of the record-of-rights under the Act;

(2) When the area contained within the external boundaries of the village maps of the previous survey contemplated by sub-paragraph (1) is unsuitable as the unit of survey and record, the Settlement Officer shall, after ascertaining as far as possible, the opinions of the raiyats concerned, submit his proposals for the determination of the area to be adopted as the unit of record and survey to the Board of Revenue through the controlling officers to whom he is subordinate. That unit shall, if sanctioned by the Board of Revenue, be adopted in framing the record-of-rights and shall be deemed to constitute a village when a notification adopting it as such has been issued in the Official Gazette by the State Government. The Board of Revenue shall submit a copy of its order in each case to the State Government for the issue of the notification.

4. Khanapuri: At this and the two following stages the draft record-of-rights shall be revised or prepared. The draft record shall consist of statements of rights which are hereinafter styled the khatians. There shall ordinarily be a separate khatian for each person interested, or each group of persons jointly interested, in the land and each khatian shall show the rights and liabilities of each person or group of persons according to the particulars referred to in rule 23. At this stage all such particulars shall be entered in the draft record-of-rights including the revenue and cesses and the special conditions and incidents of the tenancy. At this stage there shall also be prepared a field index or nasra arranged according to the serial numbers of the fields in the village. This field index shall not form part of the draft record-of-rights.

5. Bujharat: When the areas of the fields have been extracted and entered in the draft record-of-rights, a copy of each khatian shall be made over by a Revenue Officer to the person or body of persons in whose name or names the khatian has been opened or to their representatives. Each khatian shall then be examined on the ground, with reference to the village map, by a Revenue Officer or such other person as may be authorised by him in this behalf and explained to the person or persons concerned or their representatives, if present. In this process the Revenue Officer or the authorised person shall make such corrections as are necessary in the map, in the draft record, and in the copies of the khatians which have been distributed, if they can be produced for this purpose. At this stage entries of the revenue which is payable according to the statement of the raiyat shall be made in the draft khatians of the raiyats and in such copies as are produced; but the other particulars which were omitted at the stage of khanapuri record writing shall be deferred until the stage of attestation.

6. Attestation: (1) The attestation of each village shall be taken up at a convenient place in or near the village as far as possible. Before attestation begins the Revenue Officer may cause a plot to plot enquiry and survey, where necessary, for incorporating changes in maps previously prepared and for making a preliminary record of the names of possessors of each plot in operation where stages referred to in items (i) to (iv) of paragraph 1 have been omitted. A proclamation shall also be published before attestation begins in the village giving due notice to the raiyats and calling upon them to appear before the Revenue Officer on the date fixed, with relevant documents in support of their title and possession. The proclamation shall also specify that all persons who have derived or lost interest in any khatian should invariably be present at the time of attestation and that all changes which occured in any tenancy since the last preparation of the finally published record-of-rights due to—

(a) inheritance, succession, transfer or otherwise;

(b) amalgation or subdivision of tenancies;

(c) new settlement; or

(d) any other reasons

shall be brought to the notice of the Revenue Officer. As each person appears before him the Revenue Officer shall examine his khatian, read out all the entries, make corrections where required, and see that the khatian is complete in all particulars. Disputes regarding the ownership of land, or the ownership of any interest in land, shall be decided by the Revenue Officer in a summary manner and on the basis of present possession. In the khatian of each raiyat or group of raiyats he shall enter with his own hand, the special conditions and incidents (if any) of the tenancy and the revenue lawfully payable or deliverable to the State Government. Where revision is being made of previously prepared record-of-rights and finally published under any law for the time being in force, no fresh entry regarding these details is necessary, if they are found to be correct on the basis of present and actual possession or possession during the period stated above. In each of the khatians attested the cesses lawfully payable to the State Government shall be recorded. The Revenue Officer shall then sign and date the office copy of the khatian. When the Revenue Officer has completed the attestation of all the khatians of a village he shall draw up a formal proceeding to that effect.

(2) If during the enquiry and survey referred to in sub-paragraph (1) it appears to the Revenue Officer that the area contained within the external boundaries of the village maps of the previous survey is unsuitable as the unit of survey and record, he shall, after ascertaining as far as possible the opinion of the raiyats concerned, submit his proposals for the determination of the area to be adopted as the unit of record and survey to the Board of Revenue through the Controlling Officers to whom he is subordinate. Thereafter the procedure laid down in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis. In causing the aforesaid enquiry and survey, the Revenue Officer may also porate in the last settlement maps the plans prepared by other departments Government as well as by private parties after such check as he considers sary with a view to represent the existing state of affairs.

7. Demarcation of lands and allotment of separate plot numbers: The nue Officer shall, wherever necessary, partition the lands and demarcate the s so partitioned by assigning such separate plot numbers as may be needed the purpose.

8. Draft publication, disposal of objections and final publication of the rd-of-rights: (1) Draft publication of the record-of-rights, disposal of ctions and the final publication of the record-of-rights shall be made in the ner provided by rules 24 and 25.

It is hereby enacted in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

Short title

CALCUTTA :

Government College, but will have all the control even by a telephonic message from the Education Directorate in all affairs including such vital points as appointment, confirmation, suspension or dismissal of a teacher. In such cases, teachers will have no right of appeal, as given in the Bill to the teachers of other affiliated colleges [Cl. 35(2)]. Even if there are a hundred absuses or cases of mismanagement in these colleges, the University cannot raise its voice of protest, nor can it do anything to keep up the standard of education or efficiency. The Education Directorate pleaded before the College Code Enquiry Commission that since the Government paid the deficit of these sponsored colleges, the University should have no administrative control over them. The Commission on pages 174-177 of its Report rejected the plea and countered the Government view by categorically stating:—"The composition of the Governing Body of a college and the conditions of service of its teachers are not unconnected with academic efficiency. It is in order that the University may feel an assurance that proper instruction is being imparted in a college that it has been given power to require the colleges to fulfil the conditions laid down by it as to the constitution of their Government Bodies which manage them and the conditions of service of their teachers who teach the students." It is surprising that the Government has flouted in this matter the recommendations of their own Commission which cost them Rs. 43,000. It is relevant to note in this connection that though the Government pay the deficit of a good many Secondary Schools, the latter have not been excluded from the jurisdiction of the Board of Secondary Education, however defective it may be.

4. I shall now conclude by referring to a few more defects in the Bill. In the Senate and Academic Council, the vast number of teachers of affiliated Colleges and Lecturers and Readers of the University are very poorly represented. In the Syndicate there is no reserved seat for them. 25 Graduates to be elected to the Senate should have been of three years' standing and the election should have been facultywise. The weightage of 20 Government nominations in the Senate is too much. The constitution of the Finance Committee (Cl. 81) should have been laid down in the Act itself, and this provisions in the Bill violates the principle that "the spending department should not be the department which controls the finance", as was argued by Dr. B. C. Roy on a previous occasion. The East Bengal graduates should have been given a right to be registered graduates [Cl. 2(17)]. as promised by Dr. B. C. Roy (vide p. 86 of the Assembly Proceedings, Vol. XVI). Lastly when the Syndicate dissolves the Governing Body of a college (Affiliated, Constituent or Professional) and appoints an interim ad hoc Governing Body of an Administrator, there is no provision for appeal against the decision [Cl. 23(3)], from which even the worst criminal in society is not debarred.

5. I dissent from clauses 2, 4, 6-15, 19, 20, 22-25, 31, 32 and 49-54 of the Bill and other provisions objected to in my observations above.

II

I agree to the Joint Committee report on the Calcutta University Bill, subject to the accompanying note on certain of its provisions. The Joint Committee has undoubtedly effected some improvements on the original provisions, but still the objectionable features of the Bill have not been completely eliminated.

(1) The Senate has been made a too unwieldy body and deprived of most of its corrective and supervisory powers, the exercise of which is essential to a healthy working of the University. Despatch of work, which is the reason advanced for this curtailment, is certainly desirable, but hasty decision sometimes prompted by interested motives and through the machinery of group domination natural in a small executive body vested with final authority is a worse evil.

(2) The post of the Academic Pro-Vice-Chancellor is not only unwanted but may lead to undesirable frictions and complications and would raise more problems than it would solve. Moreover, the proposed scale of salaries for the Pro-Vice-Chancellors, which has been fixed at the inordinately high figure of Rs. 2,250, is entirely out of keeping with the emergency period which we are now facing and with the duties proposed to be entrusted to them. A scale of Rs. 1,500—1,800 would have been more suitable. If the expection of getting outside assistance on which this high scale of remuneration has been presumably offered, does not materialise, this will make the administration still more costly and would lead to the starving of many academic needs demanding top priority.

The method of recruitment makes the creation of these posts still more objectionable. People not enjoying the confidence of the Syndicate and any other major university authority and owing their appointments directly to the favour of the Chancellor and the Education Minister, may prove to be misfits and jeopardise the harmonious working of the University machinery.

(3) The Finance Committee, which was intended to exercise a salutary check on the financial irregularities and excesses of the Executive, has been practically made an appendage of the Accounts Department. It will merely register fiats and not impose any curbs or lay down healthy principles of financial policy.

(4) Government Sponsored Colleges have been withdrawn practically from the jurisdiction of the University and owing to the apparent reluctance of the Government to formulate a new college code laying down general principles for the constitution of Governing Bodies and fixation of their powers vis-a-vis the overriding powers of the Education Department, they would be left entirely to the unchecked will of the Government in respect of their administration, control, management, appointment of the staff, etc. This would create an unhealthy atmosphere in the running of these colleges and paralyse all local initiative and enthusiasm in respect of their welfare. In fact without enjoying the advantages of Government Colleges in respect of emoluments of teachers and range of the subjects of teaching, they will merely be subject to the restrictions imposed on them. Moreover, it will create disparities in the conditions of service of the different categories of college teachers that will adversely affect the interests of education.

(5) The drastic power given to the Syndicate to disaffiliate colleges, dissolve their Governing Bodies and appoint Administrators without any reference to the Senate or without any right of appeal to the Senate from the aggrieved Institutions is not justified on any ground whatsoever. As this is not a normal function of the Syndicate, its ratification by the Senate would act as a check to hasty decisions and reassure educational Institutions against the apprehension of the misuse of such extraordinary power without encouraging dilatoriness.

(6) The drafting of the transitory statutes, regulations, etc., entrusted to a small committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and a few members nominated by the Chancellor presumably on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor may lead to the enactment of unworkable and one-sided provisions which will be very difficult to amend at a later stage. The Senate and the Academic Council, plunged in their essential business from the moment of their formation, will hardly have the time for the prolonged sittings necessary for the full consideration and amendment of the large mass of temporary Statutes and Regulations presented to them in a lump and the result will be the virtual perpetuation of these transitory provisions. Our past experience in respect of the Act, 1961, makes this eventuality no imaginary but a real evil. In fact the conviction about the unworkability of the old Act and the ostensible reason for its present amendment was really due to the unamended Transitory Statutes and Regulations, and the same history would be repeated in the case of the proposed enactment. The deadlock would be intensified in view of the provision that the initiative in the drafting or amendment of Statutes has virtually been taken away from the Senate and vested in the Syndicate, which is a still more-overworked body, overwhelmed with its pressing day-to-day business.

It would therefore be safer and more rational to retain the existing provisions subject to necessary minimum adjustments consequent upon the changes in the law and initiate the new Statutes and Regulations only after they have been passed by the constitutionally competent authorities.

7. One of the specially regretable features of the Bill is that it has been drawn up against the trend of the evidence of the experts in education who had been invited to offer their views and also against the more progressive spirit of the newly introduced legislation on University constitution sponsored by the Central Government. I am embarrassed to observe that the weighty opinions of high educational authorities who made their observations on the Bill have hardly been reflected in any of the clauses of the Bill. This equally applies to the recommendations of the Radhakrishnan University Commission. Such a total ignoring of the lessons of experience and of authoritative expert opinion, such a complete reliance on one's own novel and uncorroborated views is something unprecedented in the history of university legislation and augurs ill both put on the Statute Book, I would give a few examples of this conspicuous disregard of expert opinion:

(a) The size of the Senate has been fixed at about 200, while the Radhakrishnan Commission fixed its maximum limit at 120 and the University Bills introduced by the Central Government prescribed 100 as the limit. The argument about the large increase in the number of colleges in recent years is hardly tenable, as the increased representation of college teachers on this score comes to two on the Senate and two on the Academic Council.

(b) In recently sponsored Central Bills, the democratic rights of the Senate and its power of controlling the Syndicate have been proposed to be augmented, even where it has not been formally recognised as the plenary authority. It is in Calcutta only that democratic rights already enjoyed have been severely curtailed and a distrust of the democratic principle has been very much in evidence. This attempt to turn back the wheels of progress is a curious reversal of the spirit of the age and a sad commentary on the educational autonomy in one of the most progressive States in post-independence India.

(c) In some of these Central Bills all superfluous posts including those of Pro-Chancellors and Pro-Vice-Chancellors have been sought to be done away with. The present Bill however has put its faith in the multiplication of high-salaried posts on the usual bureaucratic principle of more efficient organisation and greater despatch of business at a time when the experience of the other Universities which had tried this method points the other way. We are indeed offering a curious illustration of the truth of the erstwhile compliment to Bengal by the late Shri Gokhale, by assuming the discarded trappings of other Universities.

(d) Some of the Central Bills have displayed commendable courage in throwing open the post of the Chancellor to the open election of the Senate and reducing the present status of the Governor-Chancellor to that of a Visitor with no definite functions allotted to the incumbent. The present Bill could not even envisage the prospect of nominating a person eminent in any sphere of public life as the Chancellor of the University. It has entrenched itself behind the perpetuation of the existing outmoded practice, initiated by a foreign bureaucracy for reasons of its own, not recognising the changes of the age and the establishment of several new Universities in the State which would naturally cripple all interest and initiative of the Governor-Chancellor. University education, in spite of liberal State and Central financial assistance, has been progressively declining in qualitative standards and lagging behind the needs of the age and radical changes in the administrative set-up and initiative taken at the highest level are necessary to take it out of the rut. The present Bill is entirely devoid of such a farsighted vision so essential in a scheme of educational reorientation.

(e) Government control has been increased not with an academic object in view but apparently with a predominantly political motive in influencing educational administration. The power given to the Education Minister in respect of the appointment of Pro-Vice-Chancellors as well as the Chancellor's right to nominate two members on the Syndicate are clear indications of the tightening of Government control. Of course, in the present instance my views may [illegible] the existing Government, but my apprehension [illegible] to possible future developments. [illegible] of the Government of today may have the way for the wholesale indoctrination of a political party wedded to totalitarian methods and principles, and one should not mortgage the future for the sake of paltry, present-day advantages.

It is because of these overriding academic considerations that I regret my inability to support the Bill in the form in which it has emerged from the Joint Committee. To distrust and disown democratic processes even in respect of University administration at a time when we are progressively following the policy of decentralisation of power in the case of rural and urban self-governing bodies even at their lowest level looks very much like blowing hot and cold in the same breath. If our experiment is justified in the one case, it must be more than justified in the case of the University which is a unit of the highest intelligentsia in the State. The Bill which has ignored important elements of opinions of experts including those of a late Chief Minister, an Ex-Education Minister, all Ex-Vice-Chancellors excepting one, the entire body of non-official educationists and filled with sharp misgivings some constant supporters of the Government, is not likely to promote appreciably the academic interests coming within its scope, and we, who are wedded to the basic principles of the Congress, can but patiently wait for that change of vision which is bound to come soner or later, and in all probability sooner rather than later.

কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের উন্নয়নের জন্য, পরিবর্তিত অবস্থায় দেশের প্রাচীনতম এই শিক্ষা প্রতিষ্ঠানের পরিচালনা ব্যবস্থার সংস্কার সাধনের জন্য নূতন একটি আইনের প্রয়োজন আমরা স্বীকার করি। কিন্তু বর্তমান বিলে প্রয়োজনীয় সংস্কার সাধনের ব্যবস্থা না করিয়া অনেক ক্ষেত্রেই বিপরীত কার্য করা হইয়াছে।

বর্তমান কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় আইনের (১৯৫১) তুলনায় কয়েকটি ক্ষেত্রে আলোচ্য বিলে ভাল ব্যবস্থা করা হইয়াছে। অনুমোদিত কলেজসমূহের (সরকারী ও সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ বাদে) অধ্যাপকদের জন্য চাকরীর সর্তাদি প্রণয়নের ব্যাপারে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়কে ক্ষমতা অর্পণ [৪(৬) ধারা], অধ্যাপকদের বিরুদ্ধে কোনরূপ শাস্তিমূলক ব্যবস্থা গ্রহণ করিলে বিরোধীয় বিষয়টি সালিশের জন্য 'আরবিট্রেশন ট্রাইব্যুনালে' প্রেরণের ব্যবস্থা [৩৫(২) ধারা], এবং প্রয়োজনীয়বোধে অক্ষমতা, অপদার্থতা বা দুর্নীতির অভিযোগে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় কর্তৃক কোন অনুমোদিত কলেজের (সরকারী ও সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ বাদে) পরিচালক সমিতির (গভর্নিং বডি) পরিবর্তন বা সাময়িকভাবে কলেজের কর্তৃত্বভার গ্রহণের ক্ষমতা দান [৪(১০) ও (১০)(ক) ধারা] নিঃসন্দেহে অভিনন্দনযোগ্য। যুক্ত কমিটি আরও কয়েকটি ক্ষেত্রে বিলের সংস্কার করিতে সক্ষম হইয়াছে। যুক্ত কমিটি সুপারিশ করিয়াছেন : (১) অনুমোদিত কলেজ সমূহে (সরকারী ও সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ বাদে) অধ্যাপক ছাড়াও আর যে সব কর্মচারী আছেন তাঁহাদের চাকরীর সর্তাদি প্রণয়নের ক্ষমতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের থাকিবে [৪(৬) (খ) ধারা], এবং (২) সেনেট ও অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিলে অনুমোদিত কলেজসমূহের প্রতিনিধিত্ব যথেষ্ট না হইলেও কিছুটা বৃদ্ধি করা হইবে [১৯(১) (খ) (১॥/·) ও ২৪(১) (খ) (॥৶·) ধারা]।

বর্তমান বিলের বিরুদ্ধে আমাদের প্রধান আপত্তি, ইহার দ্বারা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের উপর সরকারী নিয়ন্ত্রণ বৃদ্ধি করা হইতেছে। সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের উপর বর্তমানে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের যে এক্তিয়ার আছে তাহা কাড়িয়া লওয়া হইতেছে—এই প্রতিষ্ঠানগুলির সরকারী প্রতিষ্ঠান না হওয়া সত্বেও বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিবর্তে রাজ্য সরকারের শিক্ষা দপ্তর এই সব কলেজের সর্ব-বিষয়ে (শিক্ষামূলক বিষয়সহ) চূড়ান্ত কর্তৃত্ব প্রয়োগ করিবেন [৪(৬), ৪(১০), ২৩(১) (৸৶·), ২৩(৩), ৩৫(২) ধারা]। সেনেটে আচার্যের (চ্যান্সেলার) মনোনীত সদস্য সংখ্যা বৃদ্ধি করা হইয়াছে [১৯(১) (খ) (১৸৶·) ধারা]। কে না জানে, আচার্যের মনোনয়ন শেষ পর্যন্ত সরকারী পরামর্শেই হইয়া থাকে। মনোনয়ন প্রথা গণতান্ত্রিক রীতিবিরোধীও বটে। সিণ্ডিকেটে এত-দিন আচার্যের মনোনীত সদস্য রাখিবার কোন প্রয়োজন অনুভূত হয় নাই। রাজ্য সরকারের শিক্ষাধিকর্তা বা 'ডিরেক্টর অব্ পাবলিক ইন্সট্রাকশন' পদাধিকারবলে সিণ্ডিকেটের সদস্য। কিন্তু এইবার বিলে ডি-পি-আই ছাড়াও আচার্যের আরও দুইজন মনোনীত সদস্যকে প্রেরণের ব্যবস্থা করা হইয়াছে [২২(১) (খ) (॥৶০) ধারা]। ইহার ফলে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিচালনা কার্যে সরকারের প্রত্যক্ষ প্রভাব বৃদ্ধি পাইবে। উপাচার্যের নিয়োগের ব্যাপারে আচার্য সিণ্ডিকেটের পরামর্শ গ্রহণ করিবেন—সিণ্ডিকেট-প্রস্তাবিত তিন জনের মধ্যে একজনকে নিয়োগ করিবেন, কিন্তু উপাচার্যের সহকারী (প্রো-ভাইস চ্যান্সেলার) নিয়োগের ক্ষেত্রে সিণ্ডিকেট এমনকি উপাচার্যেরও কোন বক্তব্য থাকিবে না, রাজ্যের শিক্ষামন্ত্রীর পরামর্শে আচার্য সরাসরি তাঁহাদের নিয়োগ করিবেন (১০ ও ১২ ধারা)। আরও দুঃখের বিষয়, যুক্ত কমিটি সুপারিশ করিয়াছেন, কোন নূতন কলেজকে অনুমোদন দিবার পূর্বে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়কে অবশ্যই রাজ্য সরকারের মতামত গ্রহণ করিতে হইবে। [(২৩ (১) (॥৶·) ধারা]। কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় মূলতঃ একটি অনুমোদনকারী বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় (অ্যাফিলিয়েটিং য়ুনিভার্সিটি) কিন্তু ইহার অনুমোদন দানের ক্ষমতাও যদি অন্যানিরপেক্ষ না হয়, তবে আর ইহার স্বাধীনতা কোথায় রহিল? গণ-তান্ত্রিক রাষ্ট্রে জননির্বাচিত আইনসভার নিকট দায়িত্বশীল সরকারের ক্ষমতা প্রয়োগের অধিকার নিশ্চয়ই আছে, কিন্তু ইহা মনে রাখা উচিত বৃটেন প্রভৃতি সকল গণতান্ত্রিক দেশেই শিক্ষা-প্রতিষ্ঠানের স্বাতন্ত্র্যকে স্বীকার করা হয়, এবং প্রতিষ্ঠানের প্রাত্যহিক কর্মে, নীতিনির্ধারণের ক্ষেত্রে সরকার কোনরূপ হস্তক্ষেপ করেন না। রাধাকৃষ্ণন কমিশন অত্যন্ত স্পষ্ট ভাষায় শিক্ষাক্ষেত্রে সরকারী নিয়ন্ত্রণের বিরুদ্ধে মত প্রকাশ করিয়াছেন। সম্প্রতি বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় মঞ্জুরী কমিশন ও শিক্ষা কমিশনের সভাপতি ডঃ ডি. এস. কোঠারীর সভাপতিত্বে ভারতের সকল বিশ্ব-বিদ্যালয়ের জন্য একটি আদর্শ আইনের খসড়া রচনার জন্য যে 'মডেল অ্যাক্ট কমিটি' গঠন করা হয়, সেই কমিটিও একবাক্যে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় পরিচালনায় সরকারী কর্তৃত্ব প্রসারের বিরোধিতা করিয়াছেন। কিছুদিন পূর্বে কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের কলেজ কোড্ বিবেচনার জন্য কলিকাতা হাইকোর্টের প্রাক্তন প্রধান বিচারপতি ও কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের প্রাক্তন আচার্য শ্রীফণিভূষণ চক্রবর্তীকে লইয়া যে কমিশন গঠন করা হয়, সেই কমিশনও সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের ক্ষেত্রে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিবর্তে সরকারী শিক্ষা দপ্তরের নিয়ন্ত্রণ-প্রতিষ্ঠানের প্রস্তাবের বিরুদ্ধে মত প্রকাশ করিয়াছেন, এবং বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় ও কলেজসমূহকে সরকারী প্রভাবমুক্ত রাখিবার পক্ষে জোরালো যুক্তি প্রদর্শন করিয়াছেন। কিন্তু সকল মত অগ্রাহ্য করিয়া আজ বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের উপর সরকারের আমলাতান্ত্রিক নিয়ন্ত্রণ বৃদ্ধি করা হইতেছে। কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় দীর্ঘদিন ধরিয়া যে স্বাতন্ত্র্য ভোগ করিয়া আসিতেছে, এই বিলের দ্বারা তাহা বিনাশের কাজ সুরু করা হইল বলিয়া আমাদের আশঙ্কা হইতেছে। সাম্প্রতিককালে পশ্চিম-বঙ্গে কল্যাণী, রবীন্দ্র-ভারতী, কর্ণাটক ও উৎকল বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় এই রাজ্যের বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ে সরকারী নিয়ন্ত্রণ বৃদ্ধি করা হইয়াছে। বিলের [illegible] পরিচালনার

অভিজ্ঞতা খুব খারাপ। অযথা সরকারী হস্তক্ষেপের ফলে এই সব স্থানে অধ্যয়ন বিঘ্নিত ও গবেষণার পথ রুদ্ধ। কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিণতিও একই রূপ হইবে।

সরকারী স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ সম্পর্কে বিলে যে ব্যবস্থা করা হইয়াছে, আমরা তাহার তীব্র বিরোধীতা করি। স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ সরকারী কলেজ নয়—সরকারী কলেজের মত এই সব কলেজের অধ্যাপকরা বেতন পান না, অন্যান্য সুযোগ-সুবিধাও পান না। সরকারী কলেজের জন্য সরকারের যে আনুকুল্য, স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ তাহা হইতেও বঞ্চিত। প্রায় সকল বিষয়েই অন্যান্য অনুমোদিত কলেজের মতই স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের অবস্থা। অথচ সকল বিষয়ে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিবর্তে সরকারী শিক্ষা দপ্তর এই কলেজগুলির উপর কর্তৃত্ব করিবেন। অনুমোদিত কলেজের অধ্যাপকদের জন্য বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় চাকরীর সর্তাদি প্রণয়ন, পরিচালক সমিতি গঠন, অধ্যাপকের বিরুদ্ধে শাস্তিমূলক ব্যবস্থার ক্ষেত্রে বিরোধটি সালিশ ট্রাইব্যুনালে প্রেরণ প্রভৃতি বিষয়ে বিধি প্রস্তুত করিতে পারিবেন—কিন্তু স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের অধ্যাপকগণকে এই সব সুবিধা হইতে বঞ্চিত করা হইয়াছে। অধ্যাপক ছাড়া কলেজের অন্য কর্মচারীদের চাকরীর সর্তাদি সম্পর্কে বিশ্ব-বিদ্যালয়কে যে ক্ষমতা দেওয়া হইতেছে—স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের কর্মচারীগণ সে সব সুযোগও ভোগ করিতে পারিবেন না [৪(৬), ৪(১০), ২৩(১), ৩৫(২) ধারা]। প্রয়োজন হইলে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় কোন কলেজের পরিচালনার দায়িত্ব সাময়িকভাবে স্বহস্তে গ্রহণ করিতে পারিবেন—কিন্তু স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের ক্ষেত্রে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় এই কাজ করিতে পারিবেন না [৪(১০) ধারা]। আমরা এই বিষয়গুলিকে শিক্ষামূলক বলিয়াই মনে করি, এবং শিক্ষামূলক বিষয়ে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় অপেক্ষা সরকারী শিক্ষা দপ্তর যোগ্যতর ভূমিকা পালন করিতে পারিবেন, ইহা আমরা বিশ্বাস করি না। বিলের স্পন্সর্ড কলেজ সম্পর্কিত ধারাগুলি কার্যকরী হইলে স্পন্সর্ড কলেজের কয়েক সহস্র অধ্যাপক ও অন্য কর্মচারী বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় প্রদত্ত সুযোগ-সুবিধা হইতে বঞ্চিত হইবেন, প্রতিটি বিষয়ে তাঁহারা আমলাতন্ত্রের কবলে পড়িবেন, এবং ধীরে ধীরে তাঁহাদের সকল প্রকার স্বাধীনতা কাড়িয়া লওয়া হইবে। কলেজ অধ্যাপকদের বিপুল অংশের ক্ষেত্রে এই অবিচার, এবং অধ্যাপকদের মধ্যে বৈষম্য সৃষ্টির এই চেষ্টার বিরুদ্ধে অধ্যাপক সমাজ সর্বসম্মত অভিমত প্রকাশ করিয়াছে। এই ধারাগুলির পরিবর্তন না করিলে বিলটি 'অধ্যাপক বিরোধী বিল' বলিয়া অখ্যাতি লাভ করিবে। পশ্চিমবঙ্গের কলেজীয় শিক্ষার ব্যাপক একটি অংশের ক্ষেত্রে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের কর্তৃত্বের পরিবর্তে সরকারের এই কর্তৃত্ব প্রসারের প্রচেষ্টা শিক্ষাক্ষেত্রে বিপর্যয় ডাকিয়া আনিবে।

নূতন বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় বিল প্রণয়নের প্রস্তাব উঠিবার সময় হইতেই যে বিষয়টি লইয়া শিক্ষানুরাগী মহলে সর্বাপেক্ষা অধিক বিতর্ক হইয়াছে, তাহা হইল সেনেটের ভূমিকা ও ক্ষমতা লইয়া। এতদিন পর্যন্ত যেভাবে সেনেটকে সর্বোচ্চ পরিচালক সমিতি বা 'সুপ্রীম গভর্নিং বডি' রূপে রাখা হইয়াছে, তাহার পরিবর্তন করা উচিত বলিয়া আমরা স্বীকার করি। প্রায় দুইশত সদস্যের একটি প্রতিষ্ঠানের হাতে খুঁটিনাটি বিষয়ের প্রাত্যহিক প্রশাসনিক কার্যের দায়িত্ব দেওয়া যায় না। এই কারণে ক্ষমতা পৃথকীকরণের নীতির প্রতি আমরা সমর্থন জানাইয়াছি। কিন্তু বর্তমান বিলে যেভাবে সেনেটকে সকল ক্ষমতা হইতে বঞ্চিত করিয়া ইহাকে নিছক একটি বিতর্কসভায় পরিণত করা হইয়াছে, আমরা তাহার প্রতিবাদ করি। সেনেট নীতিনির্ধারণ করিবে, সেনেট-নির্ধারিত নীতির অনুসরণে সিণ্ডিকেট এককভাবে পরিচালনাকার্য সম্পন্ন করিবে, এবং শিক্ষার বিষয়ে অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিল চূড়ান্ত সিদ্ধান্ত গ্রহণ করিবে—ইহাই হইবে পৃথকীকরণের নীতি। কিন্তু বর্তমান বিলে এই নীতি যথাযথভাবে অনুসরণ করা হয় নাই। নীতিনির্ধারণের ক্ষেত্রে সেনেটকে সর্বোচ্চ ক্ষমতা দেওয়া হয় নাই। সিণ্ডিকেটকে নিছক পরিচালনাকার্য ছাড়াও অনেক বেশী ক্ষমতা দেওয়া হইয়াছে—নীতিনির্ধারণ এমনকি শিক্ষামূলক বিষয়েও অধিকতর ক্ষমতা সিণ্ডিকেটের হস্তে অর্পণ করা হইয়াছে। আমরা মনে করি, 'মডেল অ্যাক্ট কমিটি'র সুপারিশমত সেনেটকে সর্বোচ্চ নীতিনির্ধারক সমিতি বা 'সুপ্রীম পলিসিমেকিং বডি' রূপে ঘোষণা করা উচিত, এবং অন্ততঃপক্ষে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের বার্ষিক আয়-ব্যয়ের বরাদ্দের হিসাব ও বার্ষিক রিপোর্ট বিবেচনা ও অনুমোদনের ব্যাপারে সেনেটের সর্তসাপেক্ষ আংশিক ক্ষমতার পরিবর্তে পরিপূর্ণ ক্ষমতা থাকা উচিত [২০(১) (॥·) ও ২০(১) (॥/·) ধারা]। মুষ্টিমেয় সদস্যদের লইয়া গঠিত (যাঁহাদের মধ্যে অনেকেই পদাধিকারবলে থাকিবেন এবং অনেকে মনোনীত হইবেন) সিণ্ডিকেটের হাতে মাত্রাতিরিক্ত ক্ষমতা অর্পণও বিপজ্জনক।

প্রয়োজনবোধে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় কর্তৃক কোন অনুমোদিত কলেজের পরিচালক সমিতির পরিবর্তন, অস্থায়ী প্রশাসক বা পরিচালক সমিতি নিয়োগ এবং সাময়িকভাবে কলেজের কর্তৃত্ব ভার গ্রহণের ক্ষমতা আমরা সমর্থন করি। অনেক কলেজের পরিচালনা ব্যবস্থাই যে ভাল নয়, তাহা সকলেই জানে। বর্তমান বিলে সিণ্ডিকেটের হাতে এই ক্ষমতা প্রয়োগের দায়িত্ব অর্পণ করা হইয়াছে [২৩(১) (৸·) ও ২৩(৩) ধারা]। কিন্তু যাহাতে এই ক্ষমতার অপব্যবহার না হয়, সেদিকেও লক্ষ্য রাখিতে হইবে। পরে বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় প্রণীত 'স্ট্যাটুটের' দ্বারা ইহার ব্যবস্থার পরিবর্তে মূল আইনের মধ্যেই ইহার বিধান রাখা উচিত বলিয়া আমরা মনে করি।

শিক্ষা প্রতিষ্ঠানের পরিচালনায় শিক্ষকদের অধিকতর অংশগ্রহণের সুযোগ দিতে হইবে, সকল দেশের শিক্ষাবিদদের ইহাই অভিমত। কিন্তু দুঃখের বিষয়, কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের পরিচালনায় এই নীতি আজও স্বীকার করা হইল না। বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের সহিত সংশ্লিষ্ট অধ্যাপকদের মধ্যে শতকরা নব্বই জন অনুমোদিত কলেজের (স্পন্সর্ড সহ) অধ্যাপক। অথচ, বর্তমান বিলে সেনেটের প্রায় ২০০ সদস্যের মধ্যে অনুমোদিত কলেজের অধ্যাপকদের প্রতিনিধি থাকিবেন মাত্র ১২ জন [১৯(১)(খ)(১॥/·) ধারা]। অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিলে প্রায় ১০০ জন সদস্যের মধ্যে মাত্র ১০ জন [২৪(১)(খ)(॥/· ধারা] আর বিস্ময়ের বিষয় যে সিণ্ডিকেটকে বর্তমান বিলে প্রায় সর্ববিষয়ে চূড়ান্ত ক্ষমতা দেওয়া হইয়াছে সেখানে অনুমোদিত কলেজের

অধ্যাপকদের একজনও প্রতিনিধি থাকিবেন না। আরও আশ্চর্যের কথা, শিক্ষামূলক বিষয়ে সিদ্ধান্ত গ্রহণের অধিকার অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিলকে দেওয়া হইয়াছে—কিন্তু সেখানে পোস্ট-গ্রাজুয়েট অধ্যাপকদের (প্রফেসর ও বিভাগীয় প্রধান অধ্যাপক বাদে এইরূপ অধ্যাপক—যাঁহাদের সংখ্যা কয়েক শত) একজনও প্রতিনিধি থাকিবেন না। আমরা প্রস্তাব করি, সেনেট ও অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিল-এ অনুমোদিত কলেজের অধ্যাপকদের প্রতিনিধিত্ব বৃদ্ধি করা হোক, সিণ্ডিকেটে অনুমোদিত কলেজ ও পোস্ট-গ্রাজুয়েট অধ্যাপকদের প্রতিনিধিত্ব দেওয়া হোক, এবং অ্যাকাডেমিক কাউন্সিলে পোস্ট-গ্রাজুয়েট অধ্যাপকদের প্রতিনিধিত্ব স্বীকার করা হোক।

বর্তমান বিল সম্পর্কে দেশের বিশিষ্ট শিক্ষাব্রতীগণ, কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের প্রাক্তন উপচার্যগণ, পশ্চিমবঙ্গ কলেজ ও বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় অধ্যাপক সমিতি ও কলিকাতা বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় অধ্যাপক সমিতি যে সব সুপারিশ করিয়াছেন, তাহা অধিকাংশই গ্রহণ করা হয় নাই। বিশ্ববিদ্যালয় পরিচালনা সম্পর্কে শিক্ষাবিদদের অভিমত অগ্রাহ্য করিয়া যেভাবে শেষ পর্যন্ত এই বিল প্রস্তুত করা হইয়াছে, তাহাতে ঘোষিত উদ্দেশ্য সিদ্ধ হইবে না বলিয়াই আমরা মনে করি।

IV

I do not feel at all happy that being a member of the Congress Party, I have got to write this note of dissent to the report of the Joint Committee on the Bill brought by the Congress Ministry. But as I am deeply convinced that the Bill, even though it has come out from the Joint Committee with undoubted improvement in certain matters, will bring about a fundamental change in the constitution of the oldest and most venerable educational institution in the land in violation of its old tradition, the constitution of which was given only 14 years back by the then leader of the Congress Party, late Dr. B. C. Roy, with the backing not only of the entire party but also practically of the entire opposition of the day, I owe it to my conscience to record this dissentient note.

The first draft of the Bill had been submitted to the Calcutta University Senate by the present Vice-Chancellor more than a year back. It had evoked then the most strenuous opposition from the majority of its members. The present Bill brought forward by the Government contains most of the objectionable features of that draft.

At the instance of the Committee the Bill was referred to a body of nine prominent educationists including four ex-Vice-Chancellors, Dr. Radha Binode Pal, Dr. Sambhunath Banerji, and Mr. Promothanath Banerjee, an ex-Chief Justice of the Calcutta High Court, Mr. Phani Bhusan Chakraborty, Rai Harendra Nath Chaudhuri who as the late Education Minister of the State had considered the Vice-Chancellor's draft already referred to and suggested certain vital changes in the provisions (omitted from the present Bill) introduced by the Government after his retirement from office and two prominent educationists as heads of Associations of University and College Teachers of the State. I am to remark that their observations on the defects in the drafting as well as the general character of the Bill and even the very constructive specific suggestions on some of its provisions have not been given due weight by the Committee with the result that save and except in the provisions for the pay, allowance and the nature of service of the Vice-Chancellor and Pro-Vice-Chancellor and also in two matters regarding the powers and function of the Senate and in these two also in a quite ineffective manner, no major changes have been made in the provisions of the Bill.

It will be convenient for my brother legislators who will consider the Joint Committee's report if I pinpoint my main objections to the Bill even after the few changes made by the Committee at the very outset. These are as follows:

(1) The Senate has been divested of nearly all its functions and reduced to the position of a glorious debating society while the Syndicate which was at one time a mere sub-committee of the Senate has been made the University with practically unlimited powers.

(2) A new post of Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs with a very high salary to help the Vice-Chancellor has been unnecessarily created in disregard of the opinion of the majority in the Senate as well as of other educationists in the country.

(3) The Finance Committee which had been given by the late Dr. B. C. Roy under the present Act a semi-independent status to serve as a watch-dog against reckless expenditure of the University funds by spending departments has been practically made a sub-committee of the Syndicate.

(4) A caste distinction has been made between an ordinary private college and an aided private college called sponsored Government college.

(5) In the name of the necessity for the improvement of the standard of education extraordinary and unlimited powers of interference with the administration of private college have been given to the Syndicate without even a right of appeal either to the Senate or the Chancellor by the affected institution.

(6) In the name of the transitory provisions, the Vice-Chancellor has been given practically a free hand in conjunction with a few nominees of the Governor-Chancellor to draft the first Statutes, First Ordinances and First Regulations which will shape the future administration of the University.

(7) In disregard of the clear and categorical assurance given by the late Dr. B. C. Roy the graduates of the Dacca University who have migrated to West Bengal and been given the right of Indian citizenship have not been accorded the right of becoming registered graduates of the University.

(8) The Vice-Chancellor has been invested with enormous powers under the Bill. And yet there is no provision for his removal in case he abuses them or becomes incompetent.

(9) The age-old bureaucratic provision about the Governor being the ex-officio Chancellor of the University, a provision deleted in the recent University Bills introduced by the Central Government has been retained, even though the Governor-Chancellor may have no acquaintance with academic problems and be even lacking in academic qualifications.

I will now point out in details these defects of the Bill and suggest how they could be remove[d]

CHAPTER I

Clause 2(17)

The definition of "Registered Graduate" in the sub-clause should be so modified as to include Graduates of the Universities of East Pakistan who have migrated to and permanently settled in West Bengal and acquired Indian citizenship. The Committee has not done so. I am unable to agree with them.

In view of the fact that no less a person than the late Dr. B. C. Roy, late Chief Minister of the Congress Government gave a categorical assurance to the Legislative Assembly on 29th January, 1957, that "it is the moral obligation of our State Legislature to provide for the academic rehabilitation of these Graduates" and that this would be done at the time of the next amendment of the Bill, his successors should accept the suggested amendment.

For another reason also the Government should not oppose this suggestion. The creation of Pakistan resulting in the partition of Bengal which has forced and is forcing East Bengal Hindus to seek asylum in West Bengal was agreed upon by us, the Congress Party. The academic rehabilitation of East Bengal Graduate refugees which Dr. Roy has described as our "moral obligation" should therefore be considered by us as our sacred duty.

CHAPTER II

The most objectionable provision in this Chapter of the Bill is the distinction which has been drawn between an ordinary private college and a private college established or aided by the Government under the name of the sponsored college.

Sub-Clause (10) of Clause 4 gives power to the University 'to take over temporarily the management of any affiliated or recognised college in order to ensure the maintenance of the proper standards of teaching, training or instruction.' The new Sub-Clause (10A) added by the Committee has given further power to the University not only to dissolve the Governing Body of any such institution but also to appoint an ad-hoc Governing Body or Administrator.

But curiously enough not only the Government Colleges but also the sponsored colleges many of which are in no way better than but inferior to some of the bigger privately managed colleges have been completely taken out of the jurisdiction of the University. However much mismanaged or inefficiently run they may be, the University will not be able to touch them.

No cogent and convincing reason has been given by the framers of the Bill in support of this preferential treatment for the sponsored colleges or by the Committee for retaining the provision in the Bill for this.

It will be interesting to note that even some eminent educationists who have supported the Government Bill regarding the curtailment of the power of the Senate has strongly opposed this provision and have suggested that either the drastic power of interference which has been given to the Syndicate under the Bill should not be conferred upon the University or if they are at all conferred, the sponsored colleges should not be excluded from the scope of the new provision.

It should be further noted that the unanimous demand of both the College Teachers' and University Teachers' Associations is in favour of the deletion of this invideous distinction between these two types of private colleges and the One Man Commission of Mr. Phani Bhusan Chakraborty who was entrusted with the consideration of the College Code has also made the same recommendation.

For all these reasons, I am definitely of the opinion that wherever in the Bill there exists this differentiation between [illegible] and sponsored college, the relevant clauses should be amended [illegible]

I cannot persuade myself to agree with [illegible] that this caste distinctions should be retained.

CHAPTER III

Officers of the University

Clause 7

In the traditional old bureaucratic manner the Governor has been made the Chancellor by virtue of his office. In the altered situation of the country, this is undesirable. There are several universities in the State today. It is not possible for one Governor-Chancellor to devote to each of them the time and attention necessary for the discharge of the function of this important office. Besides, the Governor may not be always a man of high academic distinction with sufficient acquaintance with the academic administration and problems of the University. Thirdly, the Governor-Chancellor has for his adviser the Secretary to the Department of Education whose advice is likely to be influenced by political consideration due to the connection with the Ministry. An educationist of outstanding ability should be therefore appointed by the State Government for this office.

However I would not press this point very much if the Governor-Chancellor be given an independent educationist of great merit and not the Education Secretary of the State Government as his adviser in the University affairs.

Clause 8

The Vice-Chancellor has been given a term of four years and made eligible for re-appointment under this clause. Radhakrishnan Commission has strongly opposed the provision for re-election for the simple reason that this would have the chance of making the incumbent of this office susceptible to the influence of persons on whom re-appointment or re-election would depend.

Possibly this is why the Lucknow and Delhi University Acts have given their Vice-Chancellor a term of five years and no eligibility for re-appointment. The Joint Committee on the Benaras Hindu University Bill are reported to have also opposed re-appointment.

It is my deliberate opinion therefore that the words "shall hold office for a term of four years and shall be eligible for re-appointment" in this sub-clause be replaced by the words "shall hold office for a term of five years and shall not be eligible for re-appointment."

If the term of four years and the eligibility for re-appointment be retained, the manner in which the re-appointment is to be made should be clearly mentioned in the Bill so that for his second term, a Vice-Chancellor may not secure the office exclusively through official patronage but enjoy also the confidence of the University.

I would, therefore, suggest that the phrase "in the same manner in which he was first appointed" be added after the word "re-appointment".

Clause 9(6)

Emergency power of the Vice-Chancellor

The Vice-Chancellor has been given enormous powers under the new Bill. There should be some curb upon them. It is, therefore, necessary that Vice-Chancellor's action in "urgency" or "emergency" as contemplated in clause 9(6) should not only be "reported to the appropriate authority" but reported for "confirmation" or "ratification". Otherwise in the name of "emergency" a Vice-Chancellor would be tempted to act for various reasons as he likes.

Such a provision exists in many other University Acts.

Thus—

1. Madras Act 12(4) puts 3 restrictions on his action—

   (a) He will have to act with the sanction of Chancellor or Pro-Chancellor.

   (b) He must report at the earliest opportunity to the appropriate authority.

   (c) Persons in the service of the University affected by his actions will have a right of appeal.

. Bombay Act requires 'reporting' but gives a right of appeal to the persons in University service affected by the action.

. Delhi Statute 11S(4) requires—

(a) Earliest reporting to the appropriate authority for confirmation; if not confirmed by the appropriate authority it must be referred to the visitor whose decision will be final.

(b) Gives a right of appeal to any [illegible] in University [illegible] affected by such action.

4. Allahabad Act, section 12(7) requires—
   (a) Earliest report to the appropriate authority.
   (b) Gives a right of appeal to those in service affected by such action.
   (c) Does not empower the Vice-Chancellor to incur expenditure not duly authorised or provided for in the budget.

5. Aligarh Act—
   (a) Requires earliest reporting to the appropriate authority for confirmation.
   (b) If not confirmed, reference must be made to the visitor whose decision will be final.
   (c) Gives right of appeal to the persons in service affected by Vice-Chancellor's action.

The Majority of the Joint Committee have not agreed with me. I am sorry I could not accept their opinion.

Clauses 10, 11 and 12

Pro-Vice-Chancellor

I am definitely opposed to the new provisions for the appointment of two Pro-Vice-Chancellors, one for Business Affairs and the other for Academic Affairs. But as the former takes the place of the Treasurer under the present Act, this may be allowed though there is no reason for the change in nomenclature. There is, however, no justification whatsoever for a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affars. The reasons are as follows:

(a) The jurisdiction of the Calcutta University which at one time covered one-third of undivided India has been now reduced to not more than one-third of West Bengal with the establishment of Kalyani, Burdwan and North Bengal Universities and the responsibility of the Matriculation Examination (now the School Final and Higher Secondary Examinations) gone from the shoulders of the University. A wholetime fully paid Vice-Chancellor is now quite enough for the performance of all the duties in connection with the University administration assisted by the Inspector of Colleges and Controller of Examinations.

If the Vice-Chancellor does not spend about six months a year outside India and works as hard, as can be reasonably expected from one with a salary of Rs. 3,000 a month, it will not be difficult for him to look after the affairs of the University and maintain the standard of education with the help of an efficient Inspector of Colleges.

(b) The University is suffering from a chronic want of funds and having deficit budget every year. Even its urgent necessities for legitimate expansion cannot be met for want of funds. A farthing more than what is vitally spent necessary should not therefore be for the creation of unnecessary posts and the appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor is a costly luxury.

(c) The appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic affairs instead of helping the administration will create confusion and difficulties. The Pro-Vice-Chancellor is expected to be under Clause 13 "the principal academic and administrative officer in matters concerning post-Graduate studies and research and also undergraduate studies". It will be almost impossible to get persons with such versatile qualifications for the post. Under the present Act the different University Colleges are administered by Vice-Chancellor with the help of the respective College Councils, the Deans of different Faculties and heads of different departments with no appreciable difficulty in running the administration. On the other hand the appointment of one Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs who will be ordinarily connected with a particular department of studies may create jealousy and heart-burning among the different Deans and Professors and may thus destroy the serene atmosphere of the Post-Graduate departments.

(d) The appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor has been very strongly opposed by all the renowned educationists except the present Vice-Chancellor and Dr. P. N. Banerji for almost exactly the same reasons as given above. The majority of the members of the Senate also opposed the proposal when the first draft of the Bill had been placed before them by the present Vice-Chancellor.

(e) The provision for a pro-Vice-Chancellor or Rector is non-existent in most of the University Acts in India. The Model University Act Committee has recently [illegible] of a pro-Vice-Chancellor but it is [illegible] dation being before them, the Select Committee [illegible] University Bill which contained the provision for a [illegible] has omitted this provision. It is also noteworthy that the Aligarh Muslim University Enquiry Committee in pages 120-21 of their report has recommended the abolition of the post of the pro-Vice-Chancellor of that University on the ground that "it is liable to undermine that unity of control which we consider essential for University administration".

Nevertheless I am prepared to concede that the necessity for the post might arise in future. I would, therefore, agree to the insertion in the present bill of a clause similar to what exists in the University Acts of Gujarat and Bombay and Delhi empowering the Senate by a special resolution to decide upon the necessity for making the appointment.

This new clause will be clause 9A to be inserted after the clause 9 and will be to the following effect:

> 9A. The Senate may by a special resolution passed at a special meeting by two-third of the members present decide that the appointment of a pro-Vice-Chancellor shall be made to assist the Vice-Chancellor. And on the passing of the resolution sections 10 to 14 will become effective.

Clauses 10 and 12

Besides the necessity for the post of Pro-Vice-Chancellor, the mode of appointment as proposed in these two clauses is also open to grave objection. The treasurer who will be replaced by Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Business affairs is now appointed by the Chancellor without the Minister or anybody else intervening in the matter. Why is this procedure going to be changed in the case of the appointment of Pro-Vice-Chancellor? What is the necessity for making the appointment in consultation with the Minister meaning the Government? If the procedure for the appointment were the same as in the case of Vice-Chancellor, i.e., after having the opinion of the Syndicate before the Chancellor, this consultation would be less objectionable. This provision therefore appears to me to be unreasonable in form and spirit. Their appointment by the Governor-Chancellor and his Education Minister may give rise to a suspicion that their academic activities may be influenced by political considerations. At a time when arty passions run high and even the most innocent actions of Government e apt to be misinterpreted on political grounds, I consider it inadvisable lend colouring to such criticism likely to arise from the method of ppointment followed in the Bill. I would therefore propose the deletion the words "in consultation with the Minister" from the two clauses 10 ıd 12.

I do not agree with the Committee that they should be retained.

Clauses 19, 20 and 23

The Senate

Clause 19.—The Bill has brought about a fundamental change in the mposition, character, powers and functions of the Senate. The Senate hose size is already big under the present Act has been made bigger and most of unweildy size. The ideal size of the Senate should be that of 100 embers. Radhakrishnan Commission after taking into consideration the ecial condition of higher education in Bengal recommended a Senate of the umerical strength of 120. The Committee has made it even bigger than as proposed in the original Bill. Its strength would be now 205. If this as been made deliberately to justify the role of a mere glorious debating ociety which has been assigned to the Senate by the authors of the Bill, I ave nothing to say. But I think when the present Act is going to be relaced we should restrict the size to 120 as recommended by the Radhakrishan Commission. The mere increase in the number of affiliated colleges since ıe publication of the Radhakrishnan report is no excuse for the creation of ı unweildy Senate. It is noteworthy that this increased affiliation has not ben reflected in the composition of the Syndicate which has been made the al dominating authority in the Bill.

Clause 20.—1. The Senate was so long "the supreme Governing Body the University". Not only in the present Calcutta University Act but in l the Acts of the principal Universities of India and also in the London niversity Act and very lately even in the Banaras Hindu University Bill rought by the Education Minister Shri Chagla, it has been specifically fined as such. Only in the Bombay University Act it is not so fined but then the powers and functions which have been assigned to the anate under that Act are almost the same as are given to it in other princi- l University Acts already referred to.

There is no manner of doubt that a big body of 205 members which will the Senate under the Bill should not be entrusted with the day to day ministration of the University which must be left to an executive body of University, to wit the Syndicate, consisting of a smaller number of edu- ionists and persons vitally interested in education. Nor is it ever disputed that the Senate's supremacy over University affairs should not be allowed to go so far as to interfere with the administration of University in a manner which will cause unnecessary delay, deadlock, or hold up of important and urgent decisions. But that does not mean that the Senate should be shorn of all its powers of control and superintendence over the affairs of the University and reduced to the position of a mere debating society as is sought to be done under the present Bill. After all, it will not do to forget that the Senate is the University. The object can be easily achieved not by downgrading the position of the Senate but by adding before or after the clause 20(1) of the Bill a new clause to the following effect:

"The Senate shall be the supreme governing body of the University and exercise all powers of the University including those not otherwise specifically provided for and all powers which are necessary to give effect to the provisions of the Act:

Provided the Syndicate in case of urgency and emergency shall exercise all these powers and perform all these duties subject to report to the Senate at the earliest opportunity."

It will be interesting to observe here that the ex-Minister Rai Harendra Nath Choudhury made exactly the same suggestion in the note which was circulated by the Vice-Chancellor to the Senate.

2. Contrary to the provisions in almost every other University Act the Bill has given no power to the Senate to initiate any statute. Its power to review the action of the Syndicate or to amend or to reject any statute or Ordinances has been also very strictly limited.

3. The residuary power that has been given to the Senate in almost every University Act in India has been taken away from the Senate and given to the Syndicate under the Bill.

4. The Senate has not been given any effective control over the finances of the University. It will have no real power, not to speak of rejecting, even to modify the budget presented before it by the Syndicate.

The amendment suggested to clause 20, sub-clause 1(VIII) providing that by a resolution passed by a majority of the total number of its membership existing at the time the Senate will be entitled to modify or reject the budget is no doubt welcome but it has given the Senate only a semblance of power. For, considering that the average attendance at the Senate's meeting has very seldom exceeded 75 or 80, the condition precedent, viz., the voting by majority of the total membership of the Senate existing at the time will hardly ever be fulfilled.

If any real power is intended to be given to the Senate, the least that should be done is to amend the clause by giving the right to the Senate to modify or to reject the budget by a two-third majority of the members actually present and voting.

The best course would be to amend both the sub-clauses 20(1)(VIII) and 20(1)(IX) on the lines of the provisions in almost every other University Acts.

The amended sub-clauses will be as follows:

20(1)(VIII) to consider the Annual Statement of Accounts and the Annual Financial Estimates approved by the Syndicate and to pass such resolutions as it may deem fit and communicate the same to the Syndicate which shall take action in accordance therewith.

20(1)(IX) to consider the Annual Report as prepared by the Syndicate and to pass such resolutions as it may deem fit and communicate the same to the Syndicate which shall take action in accordance therewith.

5. The properties and funds of the Universities have been taken away from the hands of the Senate and placed almost at the absolute disposal of the Syndicate which has been given the power to sell, mortgage or otherwise despose of them in any way it likes without requiring any approval of or even so much as any reference to the Senate.

The amendment made to clause 28, sub-clause (XXVII) requiring the approval of the Senate in case of properties valued at Rupees one lakh or more is no doubt an improvement over the original provision of the Bill. But this is quite inadequate for the Vice-Chancellor and Syndicate would be within their rights and frustrate the intervention of the Senate by selling off the entire properties of the University piece-meal, without the Senate ever knowing of such deeds. The clause must be amended requiring the prior sanction of Senate in all cases of disposal of the properties of the University by the Syndicate. Such previous approval of the Senate or Court is necessary for all cases of transfer or disposal of immovable pro-

6. The Senate has been given no voice whatsoever in the matter of raising or accepting loan on behalf of the University which has been left entirely to the discretion of the Syndicate. The appropriate clause 23(1) (XXIX) should be amended requiring the previous approval of the Senate in case of raising loans above a certain amount, say Rs. 50,000.

7. The Senate has been given practically no voice in such important matters as the grant of affiliation or recognition to a college or the withdrawal thereof. Even the permanent disaffiliation or withdrawn of recognition or even the suppression of the governing body of a college and the appointment of an Administrator for the muffusil institution will not require any approval of the Senate. All these matters have been left to the absolute discretion of the Syndicate. It is curious to note here that not only Government Colleges, but even the sponsored colleges have been taken away from the jurisdiction of the University in these matters.

Disaffiliation or withdrawal of recognition is an exceptional incident in University administration and does not come within the scope of its normal functions. It therefore entirely stands to reason that these exceptional disciplinary measures should be ratified by the approval of the Senate. No less a person than the ex-Minister Rai Harendra Nath Chowdhury whom I consulted has raised the same question. Indeed none but those who are enamoured of dictatorship can dare suggest that the Syndicate should have the powers of withdrawing affiliation, to maintain and recognise halls and to create posts of number of Officers and employees without the previous approval of the Senate, to approve the financial estimates of the University and submit the same for consideration (whatever that may mean) and not for their approval, etc.

Many eminent educationists including the Principals of Calcutta Colleges. Mr. Ramprosad Mukherjee and some ex-Vice-Chancellors like Mr. Radha Binode Pal, Dr. Sambhunath Banerji and Shri Surajit Lahiri have also severely criticised these provisions in the Bill.

It is, therefore, necessary that in respect of all these matters amendments on the basis of such weighty opinions from renowned educationists and important University Acts in India should be accepted.

The amendment made to clause 23, sub-clause (1) (XIV), viz., that the decision of the Syndicate in this regard may be modified or reversed by the Senate by a resolution carried by a clear majority of the total membership of the Senate affords little protection to the affected institution or confers little power upon the Senate in this regard for the same reason as has been given above in connection with a similiar provisions in case of the financial powers of the Senate.

The power of permanent disaffiliation or withdrawal of recognition of a college or suppression of the governing body or the appointment of an administrator for a college should be given only to the Senate and any action taken by the Syndicate in this regard should only be temporary subject to final confirmation by the Senate with a right of appeal by the approved institution to the Chancellor. The unbridled power given to the Syndicate in this matter under the Bill has no precedent anywhere in any Indian University Act.

The sub-clause (1) (XIV) of clause 23, sub-clause (3) of clause 23 should, therefore, be amended on these lines.

To cure all the defects referred to in the previous paragraphs I suggest the addition of the following sub-clause to clause 20(1) in order to confer more powers on Senate:

(XVI) to make on its own initative or on the proposals from the Syndicate, Statutes, amend or repeal the same;

(XVII) to prescribe after considering the views of the Academic Council and the Syndicate the conditions of affiliations of colleges to the University and also of recognition of colleges as constituent colleges;

(XVIII) to withdraw affiliation and the rights and privileges conferred by or associated with such affiliation, from colleges after considering the views of the Syndicate;

(XIX) to sanction the recommendation of the Syndicate for the dissolution of the Governing Body of and affiliated college for mismanagement and pending the reconstitution thereof in such a manner as directed, the proposal of the Syndicate for its temporary reconstitution including the appointment of an Administrator:

Provided that the affected college shall have the right to appeal to Chancellor within 2 months from the date the order has been communicated to the college authorities;

(XX) to consider and cancel or amend or refer back Ordinances and Regulations in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statute.

Clause 20(2).—Another objectionable clause in connection with the powers of Senate is the clause 20(2). It has made the power of the Senate illusory in regard to the matters covered by the items (I) to (VI) of sub-clause (1) of clause 20. It should be, therefore, deleted. The amendment made has hardly improved the position as laid down in the original Bill. On the contrary it has made the status of the Senate vis-a-vis the Syndicate glaringly inferior, as it has rendered the Senate's exercise of the power wholly dependent upon the favourable recommendation of the Syndicate.

Clauses

The Syndicate

Next to the clause 20 defining the powers and duties of the Senate, the clauses 22 and 23 regarding the constitution and powers of the Syndicate are the most objectionable features of the Bill. As already stated, the Syndicate which was once a mere Sub-Committee of the Senate has been practically identified with the University under the Bill and placed above the Senate. On the plea of "prompt decision and quick disposal of the affairs of the University", all the important powers which have been given to the Senate in almost every University Act in India have been taken away from its hands and given to the Syndicate. As this point has been already dilated upon in my note on the clause 20, it is not necessary to do it once again. Suffice it to point out once more that even some who have supported the provision in the Bill depriving the Senate of the Status of "a supreme Governing Body of the University" have strongly opposed such drastic curtailment of the powers of the Senate and transference of the same to the Syndicate. Assuming for argument's sake that under colour of exercising its power as the supreme governing body the Senate may sometimes interfere with day to day administration of the University, it is not desirable that it should for that reason be deprived of the effective control on all important matters.

Clause 22

Under the present Act, there is no nominee of the Chancellor on the Syndicate and yet no harm has been done to the cause of education. It is not therefore clear why suddenly two nominees of the Governor-Chancellor should be there on the Syndicate. The Director of Public Instruction will be there to represent the Government point of view. Besides, the two Pro-Vice-Chancellor who will be nominated by the Governor-Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and the President of the Board of Secondary Education, a pure Government nominee, will be on the Board. There is, therefore, no necessity for the provision for two nominees of the Chancellor. It is worthy of note that when the first draft of the Bill was presented before the Senate by the present Vice-Chancellor this provision was almost unanimously opposed. At most, therefore, I can agree to one nominee of the Chancellor.

Clause 23

1. A careful examination of the provisions of clause 23 would show that matters of grave importance have been placed under almost the uncontrolled and unfettered discretion of the Syndicate. For instance, the Syndicate has been given power—

(1) to initiate proposals for the making of statutes and ordinances and amendment and repeal thereof [clause 23(1)(i)],

(2) to create posts of officers, teachers, employees of the University other than those of certain teachers and employees mentioned in Clause 20 of the Bill, [Clause 23(1) (VIII)],

(3) to suspend, discharge or otherwise punish such among the teachers, officers and employees of the University as are appointment by the Syndicate [clause 23(1) (X)],

(4) to disaffiliate or withdraw recognition from, a college, if necessary [23(1)(XIV)],

(5) to take over temporarily the management of an affiliated or recognised college or institution other than a Government college or a Government sponsored college in order to ensure that the proper standards of teaching, training or research are maintained therein [23(1) (XV)],

(6) to acquire, hold or dispose of the properties of the University either movable or immovable [23(1) (XVII)],

(7) to raise or accept loans and to make [illegible] from the University funds [illegible]

II. Further the Syndicate has been given the power on being satisfied as a result of enquiries initiated by it or otherwise under clause 23(3) that the affairs of any private colleges are being mismanaged, to dissolve the governing body of such college and, pending the reconstitution of the Managing Committee thereof in such manner as the Syndicate may desire, to appoint an Administrator or an Ad-hoc Governing Body consisting of such members as it may deem fit. There is no provision in the Syndicate's Bill for any right of appeal for review on revision of the Syndicate's decision in all these matters by the Senate or even the Chancellor. The Syndicate has thus been made all powerful. In fact as was openly said in his press statement by the ex-Vice-Chancellor Dr. Sambhunath Banerji, it will become a terror for all private educational institutions and the educational atmosphere will become polluted. This provision in the Bill should be, therefore, substantially modified making the approval of the Senate either before or after the exercise of the power by the Syndicate obligatory.

III. Contrary to the provision in most of the University Acts the residuary powers have been taken away from the hands of the Senate and transferred to the Syndicate.

And yet the Committee have not made any substantial changes in these provisions in the Bill in spite of the strong disapproval of them by the majority of the educationist.

The only changes that have been made are, as I have already pointed out, first in the item (XXVII) of clause 23(1) in which the disposal of properties of the value of rupees one lakh or more will require the previous approval of the Senate and second, in the item (XIV) of clause 23(1) where the Senate has been given power to modify the decision of the Syndicate by a clear majority of the total number of member of the Senate existing at the time. In connection with my comments on clause 20, I have shown that they are not sufficient and satisfactory.

The following amendments to the clause 23 are therefore absolutely necessary:

(a) In clause 23(1) (VIII) the words "with the sanction of the Senate" should be added at the end of sub-clause.

(b) In clause 23(1) (X) the following provision "provided that the Syndicate may recommend disciplinary action against teachers to the Senate for its approval" should be added.

(c) In clause 23(1)(XIV) the words "to withdraw" should be substituted by the words "to recommend to the Senate the withdrawal of".

(d) In clause 23(1)(XV) besides the omission of the words "or the Government sponsored college" the words "to report to the Senate for its approval of the action of the Syndicate" be added at the end of the sub-clause. The right of appeal to the Chancellor within one month from the communication of the decision to the affected institution should also be given to the latter.

(e) The changes required to be made in the items (XXVII) and (XXIX) have already been indicated in course of my observations on clause 20.

(f) Clause 23(2) vesting the residuary powers in the Syndicate should be deleted.

(g) Clause 23(3): As already suggested, the power given to the Syndicate under this sub-clause (3) should not be absolute; either the previous approval of the Senate should be obtained or if that is not possible for any reason, the Syndicate's action should only be temporary subject to final confirmation by the Senate and also a right of appeal to the Chancellor to be given to the institution within one month from the date of communication of the order.

(h) Clause 21(1)(XI): The original provision of his clause giving power to the Syndicate to grant affiliation or recognition to a college has been made contingent on the prior "consideration of the opinion of the State Government" on the propriety or otherwise of the grant of such affiliation or recognition; the reason given on behalf of the Government for this admendment that as every new affiliated college adds to the potential liability of the Government to give it financial assistance in future, it should be consulted by the University authorities before the sanction of affiliation or recognition is not at all convincting, as the Director of Public Instruction will be on the Syndicate to represent the Government and other nominated members will not also dare to go against the wishes of the Government.

...hamper the establishment of new educational ...ultimately stand in the way of the expansion of ...ation of new colleges should be governed by purely ...ions undiluted by any deference to the wishes of a ...y.

Clause 31

The Finance Committee

Clause 31 regarding the constitution and functions of the Finance Committee is another provision of vital importance in the Bill. Under the present Act, the Finance Committee is not a Sub-Committee of the Syndicate but enjoys a semi-independent status which was given to it by the late Dr. B. C. Roy, the author of the present Act, with the object of investing it with the power and function recommended by Radhakrishnan Committee, namely to "to endure that the University does not embark on schemes which it cannot afford". For that reason, the Vice-Chancellor as the head of the spending department was not only not made the Chairman but not even an ordinary member of the Committee and a new post of Treasurer was created for this office who was placed, not under the supervision and control of the Vice-Chancellor but of the Syndicate.

But unfortunately the constitution and function of the Finance Committee were not laid down in the Act as should be done in the case of all prindipal authorities of the University. However, as these were left to be prescribed by the Statute which was under the Act of 1951, the sole prorogative of the Senate to frame and not of the Syndicate as under the present Bill, it has not worked unsatisfactorily.

It is good that the authors of the present Bill have not openly described the Finance Committee as a Sub-Committee of the Syndicate. Nevertheless as the Vice-Chancellor has been made its Chairman and his assistant Pro-Vice-Chancellor its Vice-Chairman and as its constitution and functions will be prescribed by Statutes in the framing of which the Syndicate under the present Bill will play the leading part and as its "procedure in financial matters including the delegation of its powers will be prescribed by ordinances" in effect the new Finance Committee will become a Sub-Committee providing no check whatsoever on the natural desire of the executive to spend more than its financial resources permit.

These unsatisfactory features of clause 31 must be therefore removed. In most of the University Acts, the constitution of Finance Committee as that of the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council has been laid down in the Act. Some safeguards against excessive expenditure by the spending departments are also statutorily provided for in these Acts. For instance, in the Delhi, Aligarh, Jabbalpore, Allahabad University Acts and even in the Banaras Hindu University Amendment Bill pending before Parliament, the Finance Committee has been directed to fix limits for the total recurring and non-recurring expenditure beyond which the University is not permitted to go. No change in this clause has been made by the Committee by statutorily prescribing the constitution and powers of the Finance Committee.

I would therefore suggest that clause 31 be substituted by the following clause :

"31 (1) There shall be a Finance Committee of the University with the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman and Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance as the Convenor, to be constituted as follows :

(a) the Vice-Chancellor,

(b) Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs,

(c) one member of the Senate with experience of financial matters nominated by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister,

(d) one person to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor from amongst the members of the Board of Management of the Trust Funds of the University,

(e) one representative of the Syndicate not being any of the persons appointed under the foregoing clauses elected by the Syndicate from among its members,

(f) the Accountant-General of West Bengal or his nominee,

(2) The powers, functions and duties of the Committee shall be prescribed by the Statutes while the procedure in financial matters including the delegation of powers to incur expenditure within the limits of the budget provision to Boards, Committees and Officers

(3) The Finance Committee shall fix limits for the total recurring expenditure and total non-recurring expenditure for the year based on the income and resources of the University (which in the case of productive works may include the proceeds of loans). No expenditure shall be incurred by the University in excess of the limits so fixed.

(4) No expenditure other than that provided for in the budget shall be incurred by the University without the approval of the Finance Committee."

It will be seen that in the composition of the Finance Committee. I have included the Accountant-General or his nominee. His presence is particularly necessary as it will not only serve as a check on the possible tendency of the representatives of the spending departments of the University for living beyond means but will facilitate the passing of the University Accounts by the State Audit Department. Model Universities Act Committee have specifically recommended in their report that "the Finance Committee should include any particular ex-officio member of the Executive Council representing Government whose knowledge of financial matter would be of use to the committee". It is also recommended that "provision may be made for adequate control of financial transactions of the University in addition to the usual financial rules, budgetary rules, audit and other safeguards".

I would suggest that the clause shall be amended on these lines as in the case of the Banaras Hindu University (Amendment) Bill and some other University Acts. The items (c), (d) and (e) in the sub-clause (1) occur in the existing statutes regarding the constitution of Finance Committee.

CHAPTER VII

Clauses 49—54

Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations

The manner in which the powers of the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council have been provided for in the Bill, as in the present Act, is very defective. First certain powers have been directly given to these bodies under clauses 20, 23 and 25 and then certain other powers are indirectly conferred on them in the form of powers to make Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations under clause 49 to 54. The result is that it causes great inconvenience to any one wishing to ascertain the exact powers of these authorities of the University under the Bill. It is not intelligible why all the powers intended to be given to these bodies have not been put in the relevant clauses defining their powers and functions. These defects in the drafting of the Bill should be rectified. If the amendment to section 20 giving specifically the powers to make statutes to the Senate as suggested by me be accepted, this will go to remove to a large extent. The following changes should also be made in these clauses which are as follows :

Clause 50(1)

As it is, though clause 20 is silent on the question of Senate's power to make Statutes, clause 50(1) has given some power to the Senate in the prospect. But this clause is defective for several reasons :

(a) It gives power to the Senate only to consider a draft statute submitted to it by the Syndicate but not to take any initiative in the matter of making any statutes. Is it not absurd to suggest that the initiative in the matter of making statues should rest only with the Syndicate? It is not at all clear why the Senate should be given power to make statutes and yet required only on Syndicate's draft and be debarred from preparing its own draft when it wants to make any. Thus while under the Act of 1961 the Senate has been given full authority to make, amend or repeal statutes, [illegible] clause 50 of the Bill this power of the Senate has been made illusory.

(b) The clause gives power to the Senate to reject or amend a Statute [illegible]itted to it by the Syndicate but it stipulates that this draft shall be [illegible]d to have been passed by the Senate unless within six weeks from the date of its submission or resubmission, the Senate rejects or amends the

This is unrealistic for the power to call a meeting of the Senate rests with Vice-Chancellor and the latter may for various reasons, fail to call a meeting in time so that within this statutory time limit, the Senate may not get any opportunity to consider it.

My suggestion is, therefore, that the Senate shall have the power to amend or reject the draft at its next meeting by a two-thirds majority of the members of the Senate present at the meeting.

(c) Sub-clause (2) of this clause 50 requires the assent of the Chancellor "in consultation with the Minister". The Committee have retained this provision; I cannot agree with them. Why should this be in consultation with the Minister ? This is objectionable as it ensures control of the Government on the University in its internal affairs. No doubt this provision exists in the present Act. But when we are changing the Act, we should remove this defect.

(d) Besides, as is well-known, sometimes long periods expire before the coming of any reply from the Chancellor. Therefore six months time limit should be fixed for the communication of Chancellor's views, failing which it shall be deemed to have received his assent.

(e) I suggest that the subject matter of clause 50, i.e., the manner in which statutes should be made be split up in two parts; one, defining the procedure when a statute will come up before the Senate as a draft from the Syndicate, the other, when the Senate will take the initiative in framing the statute. The present clause 50 states the procedure in the first case. I have already pointed out the defects in the procedure and suggested the remedy.

The following procedure should be followed in case of a draft statute initiated from the Senate, viz, :

Add the following new sub-clause.

"50(Ia) in the case of a draft statute which is not prepared or proposed by the Syndicate, the Senate before adopting the same shall obtain and consider the opinion of the Syndicate, provided that if the Syndicate fails to submit its opinion within six weeks from the date it receives the draft, the Senate may proceed to take the draft into consideration and pass it with such modification as it may deem fit by a majority of two-thirds members of the Senate present.

If the statute affects the powers and duties of any officer on authority, a report from the person or authority concerned shall also be taken into consideration by the Senate."

Clause 51

The rules mentioned in the sub-clauses (i) and (k) concern matters of grave public importance as they relate to the power of disaffiliation and suppression of governing bodies of non-Government colleges which play at present and will continue to play for long, a very important role in the educational field of the land. This power, as I have already suggested, should be left to the Senate and not to the Syndicate and therefore the rules for the exercise of the power should be left to be prescribed by statutes by Senate. Accordingly these sub-clauses should be transferred to clause 49.

Clause 52

(a) In clause 52(2) in lines 4 and 5, the words "subject to any direction of the Chancellor hereinafter provided" should be omitted because this will cause unnecessary interference of the Governor-Chancellor in matters which are more or less academic.

(b) In the same clause 52(2), the words "by a majority of its total number of members existing at the time" should be substituted by the words, "by a majority of two-thirds of the members present".

In clause 52(3), the words [illegible]

The reason for this amendment is the same as already given for similar amendments, i.e., practical impossibility of securing a majority of the actual number of Senators.

Clause 54

In clause 54(2), all the words in lines 4 and 5 "or of the total number of members of the Academic Council existing at the time, whichever is less" should be omitted.

CHAPTER VIII

Miscellaneous and Transitory Provision

The Committee have not recommended any charge in this clause. I cannot agree with them. It appears from the clause that the Vice-Chancellor has been given practically a free hand in giving the future shape to the administration of the University and canalising its course in many vital matters, because immediately after his appointment he has been authorised along with six nominees or thereabout of the Governor-Chancellor to frame between themselves the entire body of the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations named 1st Statutes, 1st Ordinances and 1st Regulations which will really constitute the entire mechanism of the University administration. There is, no doubt, a provision under sub-clause (5) that "these 1st Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations shall remain in force only until the new Statutes, new Ordinances and new Regulations are made under the provisions of this Act." But one cannot afford to forget that the 1st Statutes, 1st Ordinances and 1st Regulations framed under the present Act of 1951 were also provisional in character. But in spite of the unsatisfactory character of many of them, they still remain in force for the simple reason that the machinery provided for their change has been extremely difficult to set in motion. The procedure laid down in the Bill for making or changing the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations have been made far more difficult. It will be therefore virtually impossible to change them. True, such a provision as sub-clause (2) exists also in the present Act. But this was necessary because when the old Act was replaced by the new Act of 1951, there were no Statutes and Ordinances in the University to provide for the constitution and functioning of the different authorities. There is no reason why the existing Statutes, etc., with necessary changes to suit the requirements of the new Act should not remain in force till the new Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations could be framed by the new authorities according to the provisions of the new Act, rather than by a small group of seven persons including the Vice-Chancellor and his six nominated associates which may prove a serious drag on the future administration of the University. It is, for this reason, necessary that the sub-clause (2) of clause 58 should be substituted on the lines of some other University Acts by the following:

"(2)(a) Until Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Rules are made under the appropriate provisions of this Act, those which were in force under the Calcutta University Act, 1951, shall remain in force subject to such adaptation and modification as the State Government would think necessary to bring them into accord with the provisions of this Act and shall be regarded as the Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Rules as if made under the appropriate provisions of this Act.

(b) Till such time as the different University authorities contemplated in this Act are constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the corresponding authorities under the Calcutta University Act, 1951, shall remain and continue to exercise such functions as they were doing immediately before the commencement of this Act."

Removal of Vice-Chancellor and Pro-Vice-Chancellor

In view of the fact that the Bill is conferring enormous powers on the Vice-Chancellor, it is only fair that there should be a provision in the Bill for the removal of an incompetent or unscrupulous Vice-Chancellor by the Senate by moving under sufficient safeguards either a motion of no-confidence against him as is provided for in the Madhya Pradesh University Act or by making a simple request to the Chancellor to remove him. A similar provision for the removal of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor should also be in the Bill.

MOHITOSH RAI CHOWDHURY.

Calcutta:
The 5th November, 1965.

V

The Report of the Joint Committee on the Calcutta University Bill (1964), 1965, will receive the careful attention of all members of the Legislature, which it merits in every respect. They will not fail to note that the Joint Committee worked hard, and, if their recommendations are accepted by the Legislature, the amendments will remove some of the objectionable features of the Draft Bill as placed before the Legislature. I am constrained to observe that in essential matters the Draft Bill still deserves to be improved on; and I find myself, to my regret, in disagreement with the Report as it is on some fundamental points, while, therefore, thanking the Chairman of the Committee and the members for the thought, care and patience with which every item of the Bill was gone through. I beg to lay down here only the main grounds which prevent me from agreeing with the Report of the Committee, without going in this Note into details, which, I shall be glad to do later on if called up by the House when it discusses the Bill.

Government and University

Much of our difference arise from our different conception of the relationship that should subsist between the Government and the University of a country. We need not go into abstract discussions; but I would request my colleagues to consider the question in the light of our experience here in West Bengal in recent years, and keeping in view the developments that are reasonably expected to ensue in our political and cultural life and in our national life in India.

Antonomy of the University is agreed to in theory by all, as I see. But at the same time, every one of us feels that in modern times the State has to step in into almost every sphere of the life of the people, including their education and culture, in order to ensure its very existence and the concrete advance of its people. On a modern University devolves also the duty of not only to secure the free play of intellect and increasing enlightenment of the growing generation committed to its care, but also to train it up, youngmen and girls, to face the national and international duties in the changing times and at the particular stages of them. Unless a healthy convention grows, a fair ballance cannot be struck, however, between the claims of the State and the claims of the University. We should remember that in India in particular, the University is the largest and most important training ground for the new leadership that in due course is to succeed the existing one. It should be the look out of a wise Government to help the development of such conventions. But wisdom does not come so naturally to Governments; power has its own logic as Lord Acton has reminded us. In Britain, we find a convention like that has developed. But in India, the British rulers sought to make our Universities subservient to the political and cultural interest of the bureaucracy. As the nationalist movement in Bengal, however, grew strong, the University of Calcutta strengthened itself with its force and inspiration, and came to acquire in practice some measure of autonomy, in spite of the ruling bureaucracy, under an enlightened, but mainly autocratic leadership. The success of the nationalist movement meant freedom and establishment of the Parliamentary system of democratic Government in the country. An attempt, in the fitness of things, was made in West Bengal to extend democratic principles, as far as permissible, to the field of University education and thus the Calcutta University had acquired some kind of sanction as well. The "Calcutta University Act of 1951" was conceived in that spirit.

But democracy has its shortcomings, and Parliamentary Democracy in particular calls for wisdom and care for development of healthy conventions which are essential to it. Parliamentary Democracy is new to our country, and, the absence of any effective Opposition has virtually resulted in the initiation of "One Party Rule" in the States and the Centre; and the temptations to a monopoly of power, to make the Party rule total and permanent as well, have been too much for the ruling class and the ruling Party to resist. No sphere in public life has been allowed to remain free and autonomous in the real sense; and University education has not escaped the blight. The four University Acts that have been passed in West Bengal in the last decade are designed (a) to curb the autonomy of each University and increase the official domination over it and, (b) to deny democratic principles in its composition and affairs in order doubly to ensure the political control of the University by the party which runs the Government. In due course, the attack against the Calcutta University and the Calcutta University Act of 1951 has now been launched with the Draft Bill of 1964 before us.

but, in the last analysis, they will be found to be due to the partisan type of political influence which has been promoted by the ruling party and the supporting vested interests. Even academic appointments have been known to be not free from such considerations and influence of partisan politics.

Attack on University Autonomy

Viewed in this context, the present Bill, as first drafted, is found to be a blatant attempt (a) to rob the Senate of the Calcutta University of its authority as the Supreme Body, (b) to vest all authority in the main in an all-powerful Vice-Chancellor, assisted by two Pro-Vice-Chancellors and an executive body, the Syndicate, all of which to be very much under official control, (c) to extend the control of the Government over the University in all vital matters and (d) to keep a large number of Colleges outside the control of the University, and directly under the control of the Education Department of the Government. All this attack on autonomy of the University is devised not only to tighten the control of the Government over the University, but also to extend, under that cover, the control of the ruling party in West Bengal.

I am fundamentally in disagreement with the outlook as evinced by the Draft Bill; for I believe a wise balance can be struck between the autonomy of the University and the authority of the Government and the one need not be the sacrificed to the other. The Bill as it is emerging will serve the educational needs of the people of West Bengal better and academic purposes more fruitfully, if certain objectionable features of it are removed even now. Without going into details, I may be allowed to point out, for example, that—

(1) "Sponsored College" should not form a new caste in the field of collegiate education; and the distinction between the Government and other colleges be minimized. I visualise a Welfare State that will finally undertake responsibility for all education in West Bengal, including its University education; and, as distinct from a "totalitarian State" will vest authority more and more to autonomous bodies reserving to itself only the final authority.

(2) The Senate should be given more authority than this Bill proposes, though the Syndicate should also be given a good measure of authority.

(3) The Academic Council should be given the largest measure of authority in its own sphere, and naturally, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Academic affairs, if at all the post is created, should be appointed from a panel of names recommended by the Academic Council.

(4) To ensure fairness of election, wherever possible, booth election should be substituted for ballot election and provision to this effect should be embodied in the Bill itself.

VI

The Calcutta University Bill is an organic whole and if some portions of the Bill embody negative features, the Bill in its entirety cannot but be vitiated. The Bill seeks to reconstitue the University of Calcutta "to enable it to function more efficiently as a University encouraging, extending, co-ordinating, controlling, regulating and imparting higher education and promoting research". One wonders whether the institutional machinery provided in the Bill can fulfil the objectives.

The Bill, as it has emerged from the deliberations of the Joint Committee, does not eliminate the two grave defects from which the Calcutta University Act, 1951, suffered. Administrative centralisation is there and the interlocking of functions assigned to different University 'authorities', which are even now too many, may, I apprehend, retard the expeditious action by the University.

If the Bill could secure (a) decentralisation of powers, (b) clear demarcation of functions, (c) simplification of procedural rules and regulations, (d) arrangement for extension of the benefits of higher education to the wider reach of public life, (e) closer co-ordination between Post-graduate and Under-graduate levels of education, (f) University control over colleges, (g) greater participation of academic people in deciding academic issues, I, for one would refrain from recording ony minute of dissent. To my mind, Bill as it now stands has failed to conform to the aforementioned principles.

First objection

I have always subscribed to the view that a popular Government (of whatever party) should not make any invidious distinction between educational Institutions but should place all such Institutions on the same footing. The present Bill, however, proposes to perpetuate the distinction between Government, sponsored and non-Government Colleges, in contravention of the recommendations of the Radhakrishna Commission (1949) and those of the recent Calcutta University College Code Enquiry Commission.

To me, it has appeared odd that, even after the findings of the Calcutta University College Code Enquiry Commission, the Bill seeks to exclude even sponsored colleges from the purview and jurisdiction of the University. On behalf of the State Government a special point was sought to be made out before the College Code Commission on the ground that the bulk of the capital expenditure for the development of these institutions is provided by the State Government who also undertake to bear the entire deficit in respect of the recurring cost of maintenance. Before the College Code Commission, which acted as a court, the Government argued against any curtailment of their administrative control of these colleges. The College Code Commission, however, did not accept the submission of the Government and made a strong plea for University-control over all non-Government Colleges (including sponsored ones). After all this, the Bill seeks to exclude, in 1965, sponsored colleges from the purview of the University. making nugatory of the recommendations of the College Code Enquiry Commission!

What will be the result? If the Bill is passed and becomes law, 28 sponsored colleges will be directly administered by the Education Department of the Government. The service conditions of 900 teachers of these colleges will be determined by the Government's sweet will and so also will be their leave rules. Nobody knows what will be the composition of the Governing Bodies of such colleges. The benefits of having an 'Arbitration Tribunal', provided under this Bill, will be denied to teachers of sponsored colleges. And what is amazing, is that such colleges will enjoy the privilege of affiliation and at the same time be free to conduct themselves in their own ways, although under orders of the Government. To my mind, the biggest single drawback of the Bill is the exclusion, not on academic grounds, of sponsored colleges from the supervisory jurisdiction and purview of the University.

Second objection

Under this Bill, the Chancellor has been vested with additional powers over and above those given him under the 1951 Act.

Thus—

(i) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister. It is odd that the University will have no say in the matter of appointment in such an important post and in all probability the person appointed will be a trusted man of the ruling party and the Government.

(ii) What is most obnoxious is the proposal to appoint the Pro-Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs in a similar manner. The Vice-Chancellor, designated "the principal executive and academic officer" and the Syndicate, the top executive of the University, will have no say in the matter of even this academic appointment. They will have to swallow a Government-nominee who is supposed to be the second chief academic officer of the University.

(iii) The Syndicate will consist of two Chancellor's nominees. If I am not mistaken, the Government, in its observations on Shri B. Malik's Draft University Bill, retained Chancellor's nominees, but added "in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor". Now the addendum is also gone, and against all academic opinion, the provision embodying "two Chancellor's nominees" is going to be presented to the Legislature.

Third objection

The Bill departs from some of the provisions of Shri B. Malik's Draft University Bill. Shri B. Malik's Draft Bill sought to weaken 'power pockets' as was evidenced by (i) the proposals of facultywise break-up of the Registered Graduates' Constituency, (ii) restriction of the number of seats of Registered Graduates on the Syndicate. It passes my comprehension why the present Bill could not embody those proposals.

Then again, Shri B. Malik's Draft Bill proposed a composition of the Academic Council which excluded non-teacher members. The present Bill however, gives a go-by to this provision.

Fourth objection

So far as I have understood the present Bill it is not simple and is not likely to be easily workable and I very much doubt whether it has at all been possible to evolve a simple, speedy and straightforward process. I fear, even under this Bill (when it becomes Act) the University will be bulked at every step by complicated Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations. I admit I am not very much enthusiastic about the Bill, only because of its newness.

NOTIFICATION

No. 3591L.—20th November, 1965.—The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 66 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the West Bengal Legislative Assembly, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons and the Financial Memorandum which accompany it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill, the Statement of Objects and Reasons and the Financial Memorandum are accordingly hereby published for general information:—

THE WEST BENGAL PREMISES REQUISITION AND CONTROL (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS) (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1965.

A

to amend the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1947.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1947, for the purposes and in the manner hereinafter appearing; West Ben. Act V of 1947.

It is hereby enacted in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) (Amendment) Act, 1965.

Amendment of section 1 of West Ben. Act V of 1947.

2. In sub-section (4) of section 1 of the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words and figures "the 31st day of March, 1966", the words and figures "the 31st day of March, 1969" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 10.

3. In sub-section (3) of section 10 of the said Act, after the words "other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf", the words "or fails to accept delivery on the date fixed by the Collector by a written notice for making delivery" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The life of the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1947 (West Ben. Act V of 1947), is due to expire after the 31st March, 1966. In view of the acute scarcity of accommodation for public purpose in the State and the present state of emergency in the country, it is necessary to retain the powers obtained under the Act for a further period beyond that date.

2. Difficulty is also being experienced in the working of the Act in the matter of making delivery of possession of a derequisitioned property to its owner under sub-section (3) of section 10 of the Act where such owner fails to accept delivery of possession of such property.

3. It is accordingly proposed to amend the Act to extend its life for a further period of three years up to the 31st March, 1969 and to remove the aforesaid difficulty.

4. The Bill has been framed with the above objects in view.

S. BHATTACHARYYA,
Member-in-charge.

CALCUTTA,
The 16th November, 1965.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

Under clause 2 of the Bill, the life of the West Bengal Premises Requisition and Control (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1947 (West Ben. Act V of 1947), is sought to be extended for a further period of three years beyond the 31st March, 1966. The Act by itself does not entail any financial liability to the State Government although the initial responsibility for payment of compensation to the landlords for premises requisitioned under the Act rests on the State Government. The entire cost is ultimately recoverable from the Government employees, Government Departments and Offices and private institutions for whose purpose the premises are requisitioned.

2. Clause 3 of the Bill does not involve any financial liability.

S. BHATTACHARYYA,
Member-in-charge.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, provides, inter alia, for certain benefits to employees in case of sickness, maternity and employment injury and for certain other matters in relation thereto. Experience of the administration of the Act has disclosed certain difficulties in its working. The object of the present Bill is to remove such difficulties and to make the administration of the Act simpler. The major amendments proposed in the Bill are indicated below :—

(a) The wage limit for coverage of employees is being raised from Rs. 400 to Rs. 500 per month to secure benefits of the scheme for a larger number of employees.

(b) The existing definition of the term "employee" does not cover administrative staff engaged in sale, distribution and other allied functions. The definition is being amended to cover such employees.

(c) The definition of the term "family" is being amended to include dependent parents of female insured persons; dependent parents of male insured persons are already included.

(d) The number of representatives of Parliament on the Employees' State Insurance Corporation is being raised from two to three with a view to include two Members from the Lok Sabha and one from the Rajya Sabha.

(e) Provision for the grant of funeral benefit, not exceeding Rs. 100, on the death of an insured person is being made for the first time

(f) The scheme of maternity benefit is being enlarged.

(g) Provision for the taking over by the Employees' State Insurance Corporation of the administration of the medical benefit from State Governments is being made.

(h) The rate of disablement benefit is being increased.

Certain minor and formal amendments to the Act have also been proposed in the Bill.

2. The notes on clauses explain in detail the important provisions of the Bill.

A. K. SEN.

NEW DELHI;

The 7th August, 1965.

Notes on clauses

Clause 1.—This clause empowers the Central Government to stagger application of the Act to ensure systematic and gradual change over from the existing provisions.

Clause 2.—This clause seeks to clarify certain terms and expressions used in the Act and also to raise the wage-limit for coverage under the Act from Rs. 400 to Rs. 500 per month. Another change proposed by this clause is to bring within the scope of the definition of "seasonal factory" a factory which works for a period not exceeding 7 months in a year and is engaged during that period in any process of blending, packing or re-packing of tea or coffee or in such other manufacturing process as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

Clause 3.—This clause seeks to insert a new section 2A which will make it obligatory on the principal employer to have his factory or establishment registered under the Act.

Clause 4.—This clause seeks to amend section 4 of the Act so as to empower the Central Government to appoint a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman of the Corporation and in addition to provide that none of the five persons to be nominated by that Government under clause (c) need be an official. This clause also seeks to provide that the Director General of the Corporation shall be its ex-officio member and that the number of representatives of Parliament on the Corporation shall be 3 instead of 2.

Clause 5.—This clause seeks to make amendments of a consequential nature in section 5 of the Act.

Clause 6.—This clause seeks to substitute section 7 of the Act. It provides for authentication of all orders and decisions of the Corporation by the signature of the Director General who will now be an ex-officio member of the Corporation and for the authentication of all other instruments issued by the Corporation by the signature of the Director General or such other officer of the Corporation as may be authorised by him.

Clause 7.—This clause seeks to raise the number of representatives of employers and employees on the Standing Committee from two to three and also provides that the Director General shall be an ex-officio member of this Committee.

Clause 8.—This clause seeks to provide that members of the Medical Benefit Council other than ex-officio members and those nominated by Government shall continue to hold office until the nomination of their successors is notified, notwithstanding the expiry of the normal term of their membership.

Clause 9.—This clause seeks to provide that a person shall cease to be a member of the Corporation when he ceases to be a Member of Parliament.

Clause 10.—This clause provides that the sanction of the Central Government as well as the Corporation will be obtained before a Principal Officer undertakes any work not connected with his office.

Clause 11.—This clause seeks to amend sub-section (3) of section 17 to provide that consultation with the Union Public Service Commission will be necessary in the case of certain classes of posts instead of posts with a certain maximum monthly pay.

Clause 12.—This clause seeks to omit sections 27 and 31 of the Act which are out of date.

Clause 13—This clause makes a clarificatory amendment in section 36 of the Act.

Clause 14.—This clause makes an amendment of a consequential nature.

Clause 15.—This clause provides that no contribution shall be payable in respect of an employee whose average daily wages are below Rs. 1.50 instead of Re. 1.00 as at present. It also seeks to omit sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 42 of the Act and to modify sub-section (2) thereof so as to make the liability to pay contributions co-terminus with the liability for payment of wages.

Clause 16.—This clause empowers the Corporation to frame Regulations fixing the date by which evidence of contributions having been paid is to be received by it.

Clause 17.—This clause seeks to introduce new sections 45A and 45B empowering the Corporation to determine in certain cases the amount of contributions payable in respect of employees of a factory or establishment on the basis of available information and providing that any contribution payable under the Act may be recovered as an arrear of land revenue.

Clause 18.—This clause empowers the Corporation to accept alternative evidence of sickness in cases where an insured person is unable to produce a medical certificate from a Medical Practitioner appointed under the Scheme. This clause further seeks to provide for periodical payments to an insured woman also in case of miscarriage or sickness arising out of pregnancy, confinement, premature birth of child or miscarriage.

Another amendment proposed by this clause is to provide for payment of an amount not exceeding Rs. 100 towards the expenditure on the funeral of a deceased insured person.

Clause 19. This clause simplifies the conditions for drawal of sickness benefit by providing that a person shall be qualified to claim such benefi during a benefit period if during the corresponding contribution period, weekly contributions in respect of him were payable for a minimum period of 13 weeks. The right to eligibility will accrue on payment of contributions for half the number of weeks in the first benefit period.

Clause 20.—This clause makes a consequential amendment.

Clause 21.—This clause provides for payment of sickness benefit for a maximum period of 56 days in any two consecutive benefit periods and makes certain other amendments of consequential nature.

Clause 22.—This clause provides that as in the case of sickness benefit, maternity benefit shall be payable if the insured woman has paid contributions for a minimum period of 13 weeks in a contribution period. The right to eligibility will accrue on payment of contributions for half the number of weeks in the first benefit period.

This clause also provides for—

(a) payment of maternity benefit in the event of death of the insured woman or the child to her nominee or legal representative;

(b) grant of maternity benefit for six weeks in case of miscarriage; and

(c) grant of maternity benefit for an additional period of one month in case of sickness arising out of pregnancy, confinement, etc.

Clause 23.—This clause seeks to recast the existing section 51 relating to disablement benefit and introduces new sections 51A, 51B, 51C and 51D to simplify the adjudication of employment injury claims by making certain specific provisions in the Act.

Clause 24.—This clause seeks to recast the existing section 52 relating to dependants' benefit by specifying the share of each dependant in the Act itself and empowering the Corporation to decide the question of payment of benefit to dependants and rates applicable to them without reference to the Employees' Insurance Court.

This clause also introduces a new section 52A incorporating the provisions relating to the occupational diseases in the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 with suitable modifications.

Clause 25.—This clause makes changes of a consequential nature.

Clause 26.—This clause seeks to replace the existing section 54 by a revised section 54 and a new section 54A providing for determination of questions connected with disablement by a Medical Board and for right of appeal against the Board's decision to a Medical Appeal Tribunal or an Employees' Insurance Court.

Clause 27.—This clause seeks to recast the existing section 55 so as to provide for review of decisions of Medical Boards and Medical Appeal Tribunals and for review of dependants' benefit. This clause also specifies the circumstances in which a review of benefits may be made.

Clause 28.—This clause seeks to introduce a new section 59A enabling the Corporation to take over, in consultation with the State Government concerned, the administration of medical care where it becomes necessary or desirable to do so.

Clause 29.—This clause seeks to omit sections 66 and 67 with a view to provide the employers complete insurance cover.

Clause 30.—This clause makes amendment of a consequential nature to section 71 of the Act.

Clause 31 —This clause seeks to omit section 73H as a similar provision is proposed to be inserted by new section 99A.

Clause 32.—This clause, besides making certain amendments of a consequential nature, also empowers the Employees' Insurance Courts to direct the Corporation, if necessary, to have any disablement question considered by a Medical Board or a Medical Appeal Tribunal.

Clause 33.—This clause seeks to amend section 77 so as to provide for a time limit of three years for commencement of the proceedings before an Employees' Insurance Court.

Clause 34.—This clause seeks to make consequential amendments.

Clause 35.—This clause empowers the Director General to authorise an officer of the Corporation other than the Insurance Commissioner to institute or to sanction prosecutions under the Act.

Clause 36.—This clause seeks to provide for consultation with the Corporation before exemption is granted by the appropriate Government to factories or establishments belonging to Government or a local authority.

Clause 37.—This clause introduces a new section 91A providing for grant of exemptions under the Act either prospectively or retrospectively.

Clause 38.—This clause amends section 95 so as to empower the Central Government to frame rules in regard to filing of appeals before medical appeal tribunals or Employees' Insurance Courts and to provide that the Central Government will consult the Corporation while making rules under the Act.

Clause 39.—This clause amends section 96 so as to provide that the State Governments will also consult the Corporation while making rules under the Act.

Clause 40.—This clause seeks to empower the Corporation to make regulations in regard to certain additional matters necessitated by the other amendments made in the Bill.

Clause 41.—This clause seeks to introduce a new section 99A empowering the Central Government to remove difficulties in giving effect to the provisions of the Act

Clause 42.—This clause seeks to replace the existing Schedules I and II by a new First Schedule and makes the following important changes therein :—

(a) The average daily wage will be calculated by dividing the standard wage of an insured person by 26, 13, 6 or 1 depending on whether he is monthly rated, fortnightly rated, weekly rated or daily rated.

(b) Average daily wage will need to be worked out only once in the first wage period in a contribution period The same rate will apply for the whole contribution period

(c) The number of wage groups for payment of conrtibutions and grant of benefits has been increased from 8 to 9 to provide for the enhanced wage limit for coverage from Rs 400 to Rs 500 per mensem.

(d) A standard rate of sickness benefit is being fixed corresponding to each wage group Calculation of the rate of benefit for each individual case will no longer be necessary.

(e) The rate of disablement and dependants' benefit is being fixed at 25 per cent over and above the sickness benefit rate, which is about half the average wage (f) The rates of weekly contributions have been rationalised and marginal adjustments have been made in these rates. The revised rates of contribution as well as benefits have been rounded off to the nearest multiple of five paise.

Another change effected by this clause is the insertion of the Second and Third Schedules, which are new, giving lists of injuries resulting in permanent disablement and occupational diseases

Clause 43 This clause seeks to introduce a new section providing that the provisions of the amendment Act will not apply to any past or pending cases of payment in respect of any employment injury sustained before the commencement of the amendment Act and that the same will be governed by the provisions of the principal Act as they stood before the commencement of the amendment Act.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 applies to a number of Central Government undertakings. Some of the amendments proposed in the Bill will have the effect of increasing the liability of the employers (including Central Government) for payment of contributions. Clause 2(3) of the Bill seeks to increase the wage limit for coverage of employees from Rs. 400 to Rs. 500 per month. This involves payment of contribution by employers also in respect of employees who draw a monthly wage between Rs. 400 and Rs. 500. Clause 42 seeks to replace the existing Schedules I and II by a new First Schedule which provides for rationalisation of the rates of contribution payable by employers and employees. These rates have been rounded off to the nearest multiple of five paise and the rrates of contribution payable by employers are in some cases higher than the existing rates. These proposals in so far as they concern the Central Government undertakings will thus involve increased expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It may, however, be added that the proposed changes in the rates of contribution will not affect the employers till the transitory provisions in Chapter VA of the Act are withdrawn. So long as this Chapter is in force, the employers in public and private sectors will pay the Employer's Special Contribution as leviable thereunder in lieu of the employer's contribution at the rates as laid down in the existing Schedule I to the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 or at the rates now proposed to be revised under the Bill. The liability of employers to pay contribution at the higher rates will, therefore, accrue only after some time As regards the contribution payable in respect of employees who draw a monthly wage between Rs 400 and Rs. 500, it may be stated that many of the Central Government undertakings have been exempted from the operation of the Act under section 90, since they provide benefits which are superior or substantially similar to those available under the Act. The Scheme is applied to such Government undertakings only as do not provide similar or superior benefits but as it is being extended to new areas from time to time, the number of undertakings and employees covered goes on changing.

The additional liability of employers due to (a) the inclusion of employees who draw a monthly wage ranging between Rs 400 and Rs. 500 and (b) the rounding off of the rates of employers' contribution, has been estimated at (i) Re. 0.36 per annum per covered employee and (ii) Rs. 1.19 per annum per covered employee respectively, i.e., Rs. 1.55 in all per annum per covered employee. The additional liability on account of inclusion of employees who draw a monthly wage between Rs. 400 and Rs. 500 will, however, be off-set to the extent the employers will get relief from their liability in respect of such employees under the Workmen's Compensation Act and the Maternity Benefit Act and the expenditure on medical treatment and sickness leave which are at present being granted.

As the number of undertakings and employees covered goes on changing from time to time, it is not possible to give an estimate of the total additional expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 38 of the Bill seeks to amend section 95 of the Act to empower the Central Government to make rules in regard to the manner in which and the time within which appeals may be filed to medical appeal tribunals or Employees' Insurance Courts.

Clause 40 of the Bill seeks to amend section 97 of the Act to empower the Corporation to make regulations in relation to certain additional matters The additional matters relate inter alia to the manner in which a factory or establishment shall be registered, the levy of interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum on contributions due but not paid, the method of determining whether an insured person is suffering from any occupational disease, the qualifications of persons who may issue sickness certificates and constitution of medical boards and medical appeal tribunals.

The matters referred to in clauses 38 and 40 pertain to procedure, form or detail and the delegation of legislative powers is thus of a normal character

NOTIFICATION

No. 3618L.—24th November, 1965.—The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 66 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the West Bengal Legislative Assembly, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information:—

THE WEST BENGAL LAND REFORMS (SECOND AMENDMENT) BILL, 1965.

A

to amend the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955, for the purposes and in the manner hereinafter appearing; West Ben. Act X of 1956.

It is hereby enacted in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the West Bengal Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Act, 1965.

Amendment of section 2 of West Ben. Act X of 1956.

2. In section 2 of the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after clause (9), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

'(9A) "prescribed authority" means an authority appointed by the State Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, for all or any of the purposes of this Act;'

Amendment of section 4.

3. For sub-section (2A) of section 4 of the said Act, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2A) No raiyat shall—

(a) quarry sand, or permit any person to quarry sand, from his holding, or

(b) dig or use, or permit any person to dig or use, earth or clay of his holding for the manufacture of bricks or tiles, for any purpose, other than his own use, except with the previous permission in writing of the State Government and in accordance with such terms and conditions and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.".

The West Bengal Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Bill, 1965.

(Clauses 4, 5.)

Amendment of section 19A.

4. Section 19A of the said Act shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section, and after the said sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

"(2) If, after the commencement of the West Bengal Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Act, 1965, any person owning any land terminates or causes to be terminated the cultivation of the land by a bargadar in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

(3) An offence under sub-section (2) shall be cognizable and bailable.".

Amendment of section 53.

5. In section 53 of the said Act, for the words and figures "sections 6, 22, 39 and 40", the words, figures and brackets "sub-section (2A) of section 4, section 6, section 22, section 39 and section 40" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The practice of quarrying sand from agricultural lands has spread very widely in some areas of the State and this is adversely affecting agricultural production. Such wastage of agricultural lands cannot be allowed in the interest of agricultural production. It is, therefore, considered necessary to amend the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955 (West Ben. Act X of 1956) to control and prevent quarrying of sand from agricultural lands and thus save such lands from going waste.

2. The existing provisions of section 19B of the Act have not been found to be adequate to effectively prevent an owner from forcibly terminating cultivation of his land by a bargadar in contravention of the provisions of the Act. Therefore, in addition to the existing provisions of section 19B, it is considered necessary to provide for imposition of deterrent penalties on an owner for forcible termination of cultivation of his land by a bargadar, so as to prevent him from taking recourse to such illegal action.

3 The Bill has been framed with the above objects in view.

S. BHATTACHARYYA,
Member-in-charge.
